COOLIDGE WRITING HIS CONFESSIONS, ROGERS RELATES

(Special To The News)
NEW YORK, March 22.—
Best line in the news today comes from Mexico. Gen.
Acosta wired
the president:
"Captured
Gen. Aguirre, am holding court martial."
President Gil answered:
"Take photographs before and after."
Calvin Coolidge of Northampton, Mass., was a visitor in the country
seat here today.
Stopped at the leading hotel. Was trying to sell some stories of his early life to Confession magazine.
No wonder comedians come from Oklahoma. Did you ever read our constitution? It says:
"A governor is to be duly elected and seated, and serve till duly found out, and unseated."
It's the one state where a lieutenant governor always gets a break. If you can call it that.
Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

SITUATION HAS CHANGED SOMEWHAT

General Calles Rushes 6,000
New Men To Augment

(International News Service)
A decisive battle loomed today for the possession of Mazatlan, Sinaloa, largest Mexican seaport on the west coast now in the hands of the federals.

A powerful rebel force of between five and six thousand troops led by General Roberto Cruz has been viciously attacking the federal forces of less than 2,000 at intermittent intervals during the last twenty-four hours, but at last reports the federals still held the city.

At the request of General Carrillo, commanding the defenders, General

PARR SCORES IMMENSE HIT WITH NEW CASTLE AUDIENCE ON FIRST PERFORMANCE

New Castle Talent In Kearns Show Pleases
Big Audience

MANY FEATURES MARK PROGRAM

Will Be Repeated At Cathedral To Crowded House Tonight

They said it would be good. And one or two folks suggested that it would be something different. But none of them really told the truth.
Not entirely.

It was better than that, far better, so much better than they said, that after seeing "Parr" the production of Carroll D. Kearns in the Cathedral Thursday evening one is inclined to believe that there are a lot of professionals posing as amateurs in New Castle. Or else the city is blessed with more than its share of talent.

New Castle Uber Alles

"Parr" was a New Castle show if you please. The production was built by Kearns, who is a New Castle boy.
It was directed by him and Richard Kearns, another New Castle boy, and it was presented by one hundred seventy-five young men and women of New Castle who demonstrated to the complete satisfaction of a couple of thousand customers that what it takes to make a show, New Castle has.

It was a merry sort of thing, this "Parr." Melodious, colorful, graceful and amusing. Filled to the brim with the wine of entertainment, clicking its way through with a rhythm and a syncopation that smacked of names like White and Carroll, in short an eye-fall and an ear-fall.

To attempt to go into detail concerning each number would be something akin to describing each tint and shade of an April rainbow. It could be done, but it would take a lot of time. One might entreat over the chorus work, otherwise over the pre-

Germany Rejects Reparation Plan Recently Drafted

Reparation Plan Rejected Because Of Tie-Up With Allied War Debts

GERMANS INSIST TERMS TOO SEVERE

Under Plan Proposed Germany Would Be Paying For Next 59 Years

By OTTO D. TOLISCHUS
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

BERLIN, March 22.—Germany has tentatively rejected the allied reparations and allied war debts, it was learned here this afternoon.

The allied reparation experts demanded that Germany not only pay the reparation obligation, but an additional amount to make up the allied war debts to the United States, according to reports here.

So far as the German government is informed, the allies insist that Germany pay annuities beginning with 1,800,000,000 marks and rising to 2,700,000,000 marks for 37 years to cover both reparations and allied war debts to America.

The reparation obligation would then be paid, but the allies demand that Germany continue to pay 1-600,000,000 marks annually for an additional 22 years to cover allied payments to the United States.

Germany is thus asked to pay as long as the allies pay to America.
This is now 59 years.

It is rumored here that the figure of 1,750,000,000 marks, which is now being mentioned, represents an offer supposed to have been made by Dr.
Hjalmar Schacht, leader of the German reparation delegation, on his own responsibility as to the size of the German annuities, but this is denied.

No Bald Barbers

Chicago Rules Out Tonsorial Artists With Hairless Craniums

By JOHN RYCKMAN,
Staff Writer for Central Press and
New Castle News.

CHICAGO, March 22.—Anybody can be bald except a barber.
Hairless craniums are definitely out for Chicago wielders of the razor.

growth is even more of an asset to a hair-cutting establishment than a pumpkin is to a restaurant.

Chicago's 10,000 razor wielders are solidly against the shop owners' decision. A man who works in a bank may not be rich but that's no reason he doesn't know a lot about financial affairs, they point out.

The answer of the shop owners is in figures. Two hundred thousand customers taking fifteen-cent tonics out, and how can they be made to buy tonics, guaranteed to make hair grow where there isn't any, if the barbers who sell it to them are bald-headed themselves.

The psychology of such a sales effort, not to speak of applying plain house sense, is all against it, the shop

PARIS, March 22.—The body of Marshal Ferdinand Foch, France's beloved warrior, reposed in state in the grand salon of his home today, while an officer's guard of honor stood watch and thousands filed past his bier in silent homage.

The simple soldier who, living, shirked glory as much as he could, is to be honored in death as no other military chief of modern times has been honored.

For two days before he is accorded a national funeral on Tuesday, the Marshal's body will lie under the Arch of Triumph besides the tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

His last resting place will be in the Chapel of Les Invalides beside the remains of Napoleon Bonaparte.

Sunday morning, the Marshal's body will be laid upon a gun carriage and taken from his home to beneath the Arch of Triumph under cavalry escort.

There the hundreds of thousands who idolized the departed chief will

Lawyers Will Banquet Tonight

Chief Justice And Members Of Supreme Court To Be Guests

Lawyers and attorneys and members of the Lawrence County Bar Association are giving a group of distinguished guests this evening when the annual banquet of the association will be held in the New Castle Field Club.

Headed by Chief Justice Robert von Moschizker, members of the State Supreme Court will be present, in addition to judges from neighboring counties.

The dinner begins at 6 o'clock, but at 5:30 a reception will be held in the club living room when the guests will meet the members of the bar association.

After weeks of consultations and investigations, there still remain on his desk nearly 100 names, from which the nine or eleven will be chosen. Some decisions are understood to have been reached but the personnel is still far from complete.
He hopes to announce it shortly before the new congress convenes.

Mr. Hoover had hoped to persuade Charles Evans Hughes to head the commission. That hope is now understood to have been abandoned.
Hughes sails for Europe on May 1 to take up his duties as a justice on the bench of the United States Supreme Court.

While the commission will be formed to investigate all kinds of lawlessness, Mr. Hoover realizes and so does political Washington—that in the final analysis it comes down principally to prohibition. Therein lies the difficulty. He hopes to present a commission of judicially-minded persons who have not been identified with either side of the bitter wet-and-dry argument that has been going on now for nearly ten years.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Picking a cabinet was a tough job, but President Hoover has found one equally as difficult and possibly even more trying. It is the task of selecting the men who are to compose his commission to investigate the causes of and the remedies for the widespread lawlessness that has sprung up in the wake of prohibition.

He devoted a lot of time to con-and since his entry into the White House it has occupied more of his attention than any other single problem.

KINLOCH MINE, NEAR PARANASSUS, Pa., March 22.—
Spurred by the hope that others of the little group variously estimated at 9 to 35 men still unaccounted for in the mine disaster here, may have bratticed themselves away in the recesses of the mine, rescue crews, resumed their search with renewed vigor this afternoon.

Lawrence Althouse, 28, who stumbled into a rescue crew's arms today after twenty-six hours imprisonment underground, said that he escaped death by sealing himself in a brattice, and since these abound in the blast-swept mine, there is some hope that others are alive.

241 Escaped Alive
While authorities continued their check of the mining camp homes to ascertain definitely how many are missing, the federal bureau of mines attaches here estimated that only nine are still unaccounted for, that there are now approximately thirty known dead, and that 241 men in all escaped alive.

Three more bodies were brought to the surface this afternoon, making a total of 25 dead whose bodies have been recovered. The bodies, wrapped in burial, were removed to a New Keokuk mortuary.

Company officials on the other hand felt that there were still 20

Rich Illinois Farm Land In Path Of Flood

Break In Indian Grave Levee Near Quincy Illinois Causes Heavy Damage

SERIOUS FLOOD NOW EXPECTED

(International News Service)
QUINCY, Ill., March 22.—A gap in the Indian Grave levee along the flooded Mississippi river early today caused inundation of 2,000 acres of rich farm land. Indian Grave levee is three miles north of Quincy.

With the waters of the Mississippi rapidly eating away the dike it was feared that before tonight the remaining 12,000 acres in the Indian Grave drainage district will be flooded.

Residents of the district, leading live stock and with what household goods they could carry, have fled to the bluffs south of the break. A heavy crop loss is certain as thousands of acres were already planted with wheat and alfalfa.

A serious break in the drainage levee in the Lima Lake district, 22 miles north of here, was expected momentarily today, according to word received by Quincy police department.

The flood level here has fallen an inch since the breaking of the Indian Grave levee.

have been neutral on the question of prohibition, and who at the same time are "big" enough to inspire the respect and confidence of the public generally.

Very Trying Situation. If he appoints outstanding prohibitionists, the whole investigation at once loses caste and affords the so-called liberals the opportunity to say that the commission is "packed" and that prohibition is being investigated by its friends.

If he appoints any outstanding Wets, there will be loud and immediate waiting by the professional Drys, that the commission is "packed" and that prohibition is being investigated by its friends.

If he judiciously mixes 'em up, appointing both Wets and Drys, then he risks the possibility of a divided commission and a divided report which might leave him right where he started.

It is probably the most vexing and trying problem that Mr. Hoover has faced during his presidency, or that he will face for some time.

Judges Consulted. As was the case with some of his cabinet selections, Mr. Hoover is again consulting members of the United States supreme court in the matter. Chief Justice Taft and associate Justice Stone, who are credited with having made William D. Mitchell attorney general, are both understood to have offered suggestions and advice.

Washington considers it fairly certain that one member of the commission is to be Robert H. Hutchins, dean of the Yale law school. He was a recent caller at the White House, and discussed the forthcoming investigation with the president for some time.

Silas Strawn, the Chicago lawyer, is another likely possibility, although he has frankly expressed himself as believing that lawlessness is inherent and inescapable in the Volstead law.

Ex-senator George Wharton Pepper of Pennsylvania, is another whose name is on the list. Pepper is an Episcopalian, high in the councils of his church.

Dry organizations have submitted a number of names, most of which probably will be weeded out for obvious reasons.

The president has two assistants checking up on the various names and records. This work will not be completed for about two weeks. Meanwhile the weeding out proceeds apace.

W. J. OFFUTT C. WILL OPEN NEW STORE TONIGHT

at Jeannette and another at Butler, 15,000 Feet of Floor Space.

Today the company moves into new and larger quarters. Fronting on Washington street, the store extends back into the Odd Fellows block on North Mill street, the second and third floors of which have been leased and connected to the Washington street store.

Two entire floors and the basement are occupied, giving the firm 15,000 square feet of floor space.

Tomorrow the company will be open for business in these new quarters, with a fine new stock of goods.

The main floor of the building is occupied by the men's furnishing department, ladies' hosiery, silks and dress goods and the art department.

On the second floor the front of the building is occupied by the ready-to-wear and millinery department, the latter an entirely new department.

The ready-to-wear department has been greatly increased.

At the top of the stairs, connecting the front with the rear of the store, a rest room has been provided for the comfort of patrons.

Just to one side of the rest rooms and connecting corridor is located another entirely new department, the Tiny Town Shop. It is a miniature storeroom within the store. Here will be found infant's apparel from the time of birth up to two years of age. A little store front has been arranged, which leads to the interior, where mothers may be comfortably seated while the clerks wait upon them and show them the articles they need. It is something entirely new to New Castle, and nothing like it is to be found in this section.

Just beyond is the rest room and cloak rooms for the clerks.

In the rear are the infant and children's departments and the rug and drapery department.

Mr. Offutt is to be congratulated on his enterprise and business aggressiveness which has made this fine store possible. It is one of the finest establishments to be found in the city.

The New Castle store is under the management of DeLoe Collier. Tom Offutt is manager of the Jeannette store and Charles Grafton manager of the Butler store, both of which are showing the same progress achieved in New Castle.

Miner Working His Final Day In Mine Is Among Victims

Vandergrift Miner Planned To Quit Working Day Kinloch Mine Explosion Occurred

VANDERGRIFT, Pa., March 22.—"I am going to quit my job in Kinloch mine tomorrow and return here," Harry Bradstock, 48, told his aged parents here Wednesday as he left to resume his job in the mine.

Today his body was returned. What was to have been his last working day in the Kinloch mine proved to be his last day on earth. He was among the miners whose bodies have been recovered from the explosion-wrecked mine.

A feature of the honor class is that three of the group are graduates of New Wilmington high school and that the first two in the class are New Wilmington graduates; third and fourth are graduates of Cochranon high school, and sixth and seventh are graduates of Sharon high school.

Last year with an honor class of ten students the first nine were girls. This year three boys share the honors with five girls. For the first time since Hugh Gamble, captain and center on the 1927 basketball team, was in the honor class, another athlete, James McQuiston, three-letter winner gains the high honor.

In all probability the commencement exercises for the 1929 class will be held in the new chapel. According to the college calendar, commencement is to take place Monday, June 3. It will mark the granting of academic degrees to the largest class ever to be graduated from the United Presbyterian college.

Runaway Boys Are Picked Up By Sheriff

(Special To The News)

MERCER, Pa., March 22.—Two boys from Rimersburg, Clarion county, are being held in the county jail here, pending the arrival of relatives to take charge of them.

The runaways are Claude Putka, aged 14 and Carl Stepp, aged 13, who left their homes in Rimersburg, Clarion county, Tuesday morning and started to hike to the home of relatives in Struthers, O.

They claim they left home because of their inability to get along with their respective stepmothers.

They were picked up Thursday by Sheriff Dan Callahan at a farm house at Jackson Center, where they had stopped and asked for something to eat.

STAR LORE

Semi-Annual Shift Of Night Skies By Arthur Dev. Carpenter

The stars overhead at night in winter, are overhead in the daytime in summer. Explanation: If a star rises today with the sun, tomorrow it will rise four minutes earlier than the sun; the next morning, eight minutes earlier, gaining four minutes daily on the sun. In a month the star will have gained on the sunrise 30 times four minutes, or 120 minutes, which is two hours. In six months the stars shift six times two hours, or 12 hours, setting at the same hour of the morning they had risen six months before. And so an entirely different night sky in summer.

New Castle Post Puts 26th Legion District Over Top

District Membership Now Greater Than It Was At End Of Last Year

According to word received by Adjutant Pat J. Dempsey of the Perry S. Gaston Post, American Legion, the 26th District comprising Lawrence, Beaver, and Butler counties, is now over the top in membership, the splendid showing made by the New Castle post having been a big factor in the success of the drive.

Although only nine of the 19 posts in the district are ahead of last year's figures the big increase here has overcome the shortcomings of the other posts.

The district membership is now 1813 members. Last year, the membership at the end of the year totaled but 1737. New Castle leads with 345 members, while Beaver Falls is a close second with 304. Ellwood City comes next with 253.

District Commander Mike Kane is well pleased with the result and expects a membership of more than 2,000 in the district before the end of the year.

Rebel Forces In Decisive Battle For Seaport City

Where a few days ago the rebels were reported fleeing on all fronts, fighting appeared imminent today at two other points besides Mazatlan.

A decisive battle is now expected soon in Chihuahua either at Escalon or Rellano, between which towns the main rebel forces is said to be concentrated.

Other reports stated that the rebels had instituted a campaign for the capture of Mazatlan, Ojocora, on the American border, which is now in federal hands.

General Calles main force is still concentrated north of Torreón ready to continue his announced drive northward for the subjugation of Chihuahua and Sonora. About 100 miles separate the main bodies of both armies.

With the departure of Gen. Cardenas at the head of 6,000 troops to reinforce Mazatlan, the federal concentration north of Torreón has been reduced to less than 20,000. The rebels at Escalon are variously estimated at between 9,000 and 9,000 troops.

RESCUERS RENEW HOPE FOR MINERS STILL IN KINLOCH

try when firemen fought a blaze which destroyed the tipples, made the rescue operations more difficult. It was thought possible that there may be bodies lying in the water which rescue teams have overlooked. It was recalled that Allhouse told of seeing one body and that there may be others similarly overcome by gas. Then there is the ever hopeful prospect that this huge underground labyrinth may contain small bratticed off air chambers where miners lie waiting the approach of rescue teams, afraid to venture out of their hiding places for fear of gas.

Few Emotional Displays. There were few emotional displays when the recovered bodies were carried up the long tier of steps through the main entry from the bottom of the shaft. Many clamored at the temporary quarters of state police for a pass that would enable them to view the dead.

Tears welled up in the eyes of several but this cannot be said of the majority. They represent the families of blutunuous coal miners, who should and do know better than any others, the hazards of this occupation.

Most of them are fatalists. They believe that if they must die in such a disaster as this there is little they can do to forestall fate. So their nerves are steelled to meet the occasion stoically.

When their beloved dead have been recovered from below the earth's surface and after the last rites of their church, given back to the earth once more and forever, these bereaved have a far greater task to perform, the rearing of their deceased families. Most of the victims were married and had large families.

Many members of the rescue teams sitting about the top of the mine, awaiting orders to go below, are men who forced their way out of the explosion-wrecked mine through the adjoining abandoned Valley Camp mine. From them came many tales of heroism and of suffering. They told of the finding of the Oliver boys, Charles, 19, and William, 32, found dead by their brother, David, Jr., 22, locked in each other's arms. It was only a slight illness that probably saved their father, David, from a similar fate. William left four fatherless children.

John Arnold, one of six men at work stop the tipples which rise 100 feet above the shaft, said that just before the explosion a signal from below ordered him to stop the conveyor. The belt on the conveyor, which lifts coal from the mine to the tipples, is believed to have broken, causing coal and the conveyor to plunge backward to the bottom of the pit. This may have compressed mine gas which a spark ignited.

God's World Program

"Brass Tacks" on the Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

IT IS REQUIRED IN STEWARDS, THAT A MAN BE FOUND FAITHFUL
1 COR. 4:2

By ALVIN E. DELL

In every age God's program has been a world program, embracing in its plan and purpose the salvation and blessing of all races and kindreds and tongues and peoples of the earth. If at any time he has had to deal through a "chosen people" this was not meant to imply that other nations were rejected, any more than God's choice of a ministry today is to imply his rejection of the laity. The chosen people were best fitted to be witnesses for Jehovah to all the earth. Therefore when Jehovah called Abraham and the nation of which he was to be the head, he did it for the blessing of all nations, saying, "In thee shall all the families of the earth be blessed." To make this purpose effective he removed Abraham a thousand miles westward and placed him at the military and commercial cross-roads, the "42d and Broadway" of the ancient world, that he might witness for monotheism to all nations at this traffic center of the world.

Jehovah An Unwilling Missionary
The Book of Jonah is the great foreign mission sermon of the Old Testament, revealing God's eternal interest in all nations and his desire to be made known, even to wicked Nineveh. Jonah went unwillingly and mistreated unrepentantly and when his message brought repentance and mercy he pouted like the elder brother over the return of the prodigal. In all this he indicates how he and his people failed to grasp God's purpose or sympathize with his program for the blessing of all the nations of the earth.

Christ's World Program.

This eternal plan of God to bless all nations comes to its full fruition in the teachings and ministry of Jesus. His interest was world embracing. His love was all inclusive, knowing no barriers of race or clime. He gave his disciples the great commission to "make disciples of all nations," saying, also, "Ye shall be my witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea and Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth." It took the church twelve years to grasp the largeness of this world mission and send out its first foreign missionaries in the persons of Paul and Barnabas, and even then it was slow to enthuse over Paul's successes in bringing the gentiles to Christ through the gospel. The same narrow spirit of Jonah is with us to this day in the opponents of foreign missions who are still talking glibly of "plethor heathen right here at home," but doing nothing to convert them.

Provision For God's Program.
God's provision for the carrying out of this world program is through the recognition of the principle of stewardship on the part of those who claim partnership with him in his program. The ownership of all wealth is vested in God. Men are only stewards of their possessions.

"Thou shalt remember the Lord thy God: for it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth." He very definitely established the title as the proportion to be devoted to his program, and spoke of its withholding as "robbing God." The New Testament, far from abrogating this principle of proportionate giving, for world evangelization, clothes it with the spirit of love and free grace rather than the constraint of law, adding even the requirement of self-dedication of the givers who are to "first give their own selves to the Lord." The incentive for all this is the "unspeakable gift" of "the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ." On this Palm Sunday as on the first Palm Sunday it should be sufficient to say, "The Lord hath need of him."

The International Uniform Lesson for March 24th is Genesis 12:1-3; Deut. 8:17, 18; Jonah 3:1-10; Malachi 3:7-12; Matt. 23:18-20; Acts 1:6-8, 12:1-3, 26:12-20; Rom. 1:14-16; I Cor. 16:2; II Cor. 8:1-15, 9:1-15, the subject being "Stewardship and Missions," and the Golden Text "It is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful." I Cor. 4:2.

The suggested daily Bible readings for next week's family worship are: Mon., Matt. 23:1-10; Tues., I Cor. 15:50-58; Wed., John 20:11-18; Thurs., I Thess. 4:13-18; Fri., John 14:1-10; Sat., II Cor. 5:1-10; Sun., Psalm 23:1-5.

BORDER BOOZE RING WORRY TO SHERIFFS

YOUNGSTOWN, O., March 22.—Sheriffs John S. Fisher of Trumbull county and Adam Stone of Mahoning county are engaged in a wordy controversy over liquor law violations.

Each sheriff contends that the other county is responsible for violations which occur near the borders of the two counties.

Both admit that the large foreign population is primarily responsible for much of the violation in northerntroscopy over liquor law violations. Mr. Coolidge will get the full shock of his new estate when he sees the last paragraph of his magazine stultified short to fit around the advertisement.

SNOW AND ICE—TWO UNWELCOME GUESTS

Now it was Peter's turn to be astonished.

"Why—what—who?" gasped he, and Drake, unable to hide his amusement any longer, burst out laughing.

"Quack! Quack! Quack! Don't think yourself quite as smart as you did, my fine Two-Legs, do you?"

"Of course you are trying to ask who the Drake was upon whom you spied. I can tell you. I am not sure I would have guessed if you had not mentioned that his wife called him Danny, but that is the name of my tame cousin who has lived all his life in yonder mill pond."

"Danny looks a great deal like me only I am a little larger. My wings are stronger—although, of course, you could not tell that! On thinking it over I do not know that I wonder at your mistaking me for him! Never tell Danny though, how you spied upon him. He would never forgive you. I know I shouldn't if I were in his place. But of course it was not I upon whom you played such a shabby trick there is no reason for my being mad at you."

"Well, if you are not your cousin," began the boy, but again Drake interrupted him.

"Of course I am not my cousin," cried he, chuckling heartily at what he thought was a great joke.

"Then who are you?" at last the boy managed to get the question out. Of course the bird could not bow while in the water, but he did something that looked very much like it.

Bending his long neck, Drake leaned toward the boy, his head upon his chest. He looked so comical, twisted up like this, that Peter began to laugh. He looked so comical, twisted up like this, that Peter almost laughed, but remembering his manners in time, took off his cap instead.

"I am Wild Drake of the Frozen North," quacked the bird, and Peter knew at once from the tone of his voice that the fellow was quite as proud of himself as any other bird he had met.

"Let me tell you right now, young Two-Legs, there is no place like home, that is, of course, when the weather is right. I miss home more and more every wing's length further I fly from it, but of course nobody with common sense will let his love for a place stand in the way of saving his life."

"Jack Frost came along a few days ago and painted the marshlands white, and right away I told my family that it was time to start for warmer climes. They hated so to leave that we waited one more day, and would you believe me, when we woke up that night we found that Jack Frost was having a party and had invited his two best friends, Snow and Ice to come."

"When we heard those two were on their way we wasted no more time in delay, but took to our wings at once."

"Snow and Ice are the worst enemies we Wild Drakes have. Ice just loves to steal upon a Duck while he is fishing and freeze his feet fast in the pond."

Since this added feature of airplane travel was inaugurated the stewards have had approximately 250 hours in the air, and go about their duties with the same sang froid of the veteran steamship steward or passenger train porter.

"My Condition Was So Bad That I Almost Had To Quit My Position Says Happy Local Man."

"Konjola kept me on the job after my condition had made me believe that I would have to stop working," said Mr. Arthur Walker, 1116 Cherry street, Erie, Pa., "and I praise this wonderful medicine to everyone who is in ill health. Due to the disordered condition of my entire system, my legs and feet cramped so much that I couldn't walk. My arms became stiff and sore and that meant that unless I found relief I would have to give up my job. Last, but not least, my stomach began acting up and made it impossible for me to get the proper nourishment. I was always nervous and slept but little during the night."

Mrs. Mitchell's Hobbies

Wife Of New Attorney-General Prefers Strolling And Antique Hunting To Society

By BONITA WITT,
Staff Writer for Central Press and
New Castle News.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 22.—Tramping in the woods, strolling through the parks with her dog or hunting antiques in Virginia appeal more to the wife of the new attorney-general William D. Mitchell than Washington social life.

For the past four years, during which her husband has been U. S. solicitor-general, she has had to entertain and be entertained considerably, and as a cabinet lady, the social demands will increase, but Mrs. Mitchell, her friends believe will plan her day so that comparatively few hours are taken up with social functions.

Virtually every summer the Mitchells and their two sons, William, who practices law in his father's office in St. Paul, Minn., and Edward, a student at the Harvard school of business administration, go to White Bear Lake, Minn., where they can be close to nature and do the things they really like to do together.

Was Y. W. C. A. President. Before she came to Washington Mrs. Mitchell was active in club work in St. Paul where she served as president of the Y. W. C. A. for five years. She was one of the first two feminine members of the board of directors of the St. Paul association of public and business affairs a civic body. She was made a member of the board in recognition of her work. Community chest drives also claimed her services.

Her attractive home in the capital, overlooking Rock Creek, reflects Mrs. Mitchell's hobby—antiques. Lovely old glass, quaint pitchers and old-fashioned chairs fill its rooms. Every chance she has to slip away she motors to nearby historical places, sometimes merely for the pleasure of indulging her love of the historical and old, other times to purchase pieces for her home. Art galleries also fascinate her.

Mrs. Mitchell was once heard to remark to a friend that she thoroughly enjoys Washington people because they talk so little of personalities and their conversation is apt to be brilliant. She enjoys the contacts with the foreign contingent and the varied discussions at capital tables. She is said never to either repeat or listen to gossip.

Native of St. Paul. Prior to her marriage Mrs. Mitchell was Gertrude Bancroft of St. Paul. She studied piano and voice but her other activities have given her little opportunity to develop these accomplishments in Washington. Washington catches frequent glimpses of her during the day—going for a brisk walk with her black spaniel Bob, trotting at her side. Washington's social life rarely begins before 4 p. m. and in the hours before that this new cabinet lady manages to find time to do the things she really likes to do despite the fact that she has no secretary and takes care of her own correspondence which in Washington means dozens and dozens of notes to be answered and letters to be written.

HEAVY DAMAGE IS CAUSED BY FIRE

WASHINGTON, Pa., March 22.—Damage which will total nearly $150,000, was caused by flames here yesterday afternoon. The Auto Wrecking establishment and salvage yards being destroyed, along with two business establishments and five dwellings, while five other homes were damaged by fire and water.

Fanned by a high wind from the west, the flames, which originated in the salvage paper building, leaped into the air. They created such an intense heat that all the buildings in the immediate vicinity of Jefferson avenue and Third street were soon ablaze and sparks, carried more than a block, set fire to the home of J. W. Grimes, 420 Allison avenue, the structure being destroyed.

Good Mechanic Has Chance To Win Wife

(International News Service)
NEW CITY, N. J., March 22.—If anyone wants to marry pretty, 19-year-old Viola Doellner, who, under her father's will has to run a money making garage for two years, he has to be a good automobile mechanic. Miss Doellner has had 25 proposals but turned them all down because she was a better auto mechanic than any of the aspirants to her hand and fortune.

WELL SAID, GEORGE. "Well, George," said a country clergyman to an old man who sat by the wayside breaking stones, "that pile doesn't seem to get any smaller."

"No, vicar," replied the old man, "them stones is like the Ten Commandments; you can go on breaking 'em, but you can't get rid of 'em."

It will be news to many to learn that the saxophone is an invention. They always carried the opinion that it was hit upon by accident by somebody who was trying to make something else.

Stock Prices Forced Down

Report Of Bank Directors Meeting In Chicago Affects Stock Market

By W. S. COUSINS,
International News Service
Financial Editor.

NEW YORK, March 22.—A bank directors' meeting in Chicago this morning caused a sharp drop in the stock market today and caused a pouring of speculative stocks selling which forced prices down to the lowest levels of the week and upset the calculations of the bulls who have been ruling with a high hand in the last week or two.

The Chicago Reserve bank directors, so the story goes, were determined to see a rise in discount rates this week, and failure of the New York bank to raise its rate yesterday caused the leaders in the mid-western city to summon a meeting of directors there for the purpose of showing Wall street how to do it. With the bulls in the stock market a gain standing by and the bears becoming a more sure of their ground, prices of the industrial and specialty shares slipped off in the early afternoon from 1 to 5 points below Thursday's close.

Stock prices in the fourth hour showed contractions of two or three points in most of the active industries. General Motors, which started the day at 31½, slipped off to 28, for a 5-point shrinkage. Anaconda copper was down 7 points from its opening price and sold at 106. American Can dropped 3; United States Steel 4; Radio 3½; General Electric 3; Consolidated Gas 3; Advance Rummy 7 and Standard Oil of New Jersey 1½. For the time being at least the bears were in the saddle and riding hard.

Electric Co. Chest Yields Refrigerator

Two Hundred View First All-Steel Electric Machine;
Many Favorable
Comments

As announced in a series of advertisements running in The News, the treasure chest which for the past week has stood in the window of the Pennsylvania-Ohio Electric company, East Washington street, was opened at the scheduled hour of 11 a. m. today.

The opening of the chest revealed a sparkling white General Electric refrigerator, the first all-steel refrigerator to be offered to the public. More than 200 women thronged about the display and inside the electric company's office as the designated hour drew near. Finally, when the chest was opened and its gleaming white contents revealed, scores of favorable comments reverberated through the crowd. L. B. Round, district manager of the company, after hearing the comments, predicted a great demand for this type of refrigerator here.

Women who attended the opening were presented beautiful electric kitchen clocks patterned after the design of the new electric refrigerator. Other attractive gifts were also given to those who attended.

Hearing, as a rule, is more acute with the right ear than with the left.

IT WAS A MARVELOUSLY BEAUTIFUL PROGRAMME, BUT ONLY WHEN HEARD THRU AN EXCELLENT RECEIVER.

When I bought my receiver I was told that it was the last word in radio. Possibly it was at that time, but the other night when I wanted particularly to hear a certain symphonic programme, my receiver did not sound just right to me.

So I went across to a friend's home, where they had one of the new Balkite Radios. They turned it on and what a difference there was. We all sat just spellbound.

The Balkite was so clear, clean and brilliant in its tone, so quiet and easy in its operation. All the deep bass notes were there in full strength, yet it did not sound the least muffled, hollow or crackly like mine at home. Speech was so natural you could hear the announcer take his breath and no hum was noticeable.

Although my present receiver is only seven months old, I am going to trade it in next week on one of these new Balkites.

Moreover, the Balkite is guaranteed by the factory without any time limit, and is serviced here free of charge.

This is the experience of many persons who hear the Balkite for the first time.

Milk Dealers Must Not Pile Up Bottles On Street Corners

Practice of the milk dealers of the city in piling up cases filled with empty milk bottles at various points throughout the city, where the bottles are apparently found by boys, who persist in breaking the bottles in the street is becoming offensive to the police. Chief of Police G. C. Horner announced this morning. He suggested that the police would feel much better disposed in the matter if the dealers would either haul these empties away with them or leave them where they would be safe from this practice of the boys, or have some system of having them gathered up immediately after they have been freed from this constant menace of left at various distributing and collecting points.

At any rate, according to Chief Horner, this practice must be regulated by the dealers in the immediate future, so that the streets may be

Attorney General Mitchell Likened To "Y" Secretary

By CHARLES P. STEWART.
Washington Correspondent for Central Press and New Castle News.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Attorney General William D. Mitchell is the living image of a Y. M. C. A. secretary.

At 55, he is a little too old for one, but he does not look his years.

Y. M. C. A. secretaries are a distinct type. Individual secretaries differ from one another sufficiently to be told apart, but they all have certain characteristics in common—or, if there are exceptions, I never saw any—and I have visited Y. M. C. A.'s (on business) all the way from eastern Europe, in a westerly direction, as far as Japan and China, and southwardly as far as Buenos Aires.

Attorney General Mitchell, behind his half-acre desk—bigger than President Hoover's—at the justice department, appears in striking contrast to John Garibaldi Sargent, who preceded him in the same swivel chair.

John G. Sargent was a huge bulk of an old man—heavy, cumbersome, slow—with sad bovine eyes and the hesitant speech of an official who never had caught up with the enormous volume of his work—who simply was struggling painfully along, dependent on subordinates—William D. Mitchell, chief among them—to save him from capital errors until the welcome day when he would be free to retire.

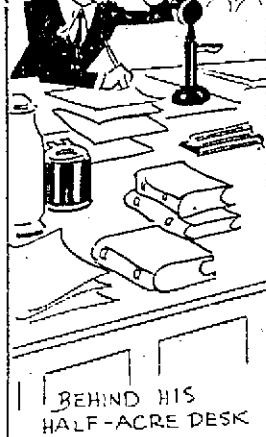

Attorney General Mitchell obviously enjoys his position.

He is at some advantage. Promoted from the post of solicitor general, only one step lower than his present office—not to mention the fact that he virtually has been head of the department for two or three years past—his preparation has been ample.

However, the job would not have swamped him in any event.

A tip-top, trained-to-the-minute lawyer, with a long legal heritage, smart as a whip, the admiration of the entire supreme bench for the soundness and clarity of his reason-

YES-YES-NO-NO-NO-YES-YES-NO-

BEHIND HIS HALF-ACRE DESK

SEE WHAT I MEAN?
EXACTLY!

HE HAS THE ADMIRATION OF THE ENTIRE SUPREME BENCH.

William D. Mitchell.

ing—he comes to his task "loaded for bear" with the heaviest ammunition. Crisp, clear and decisive sound his orders to his assistants.

There is no bluster about him. He knows his business and likes it. His eyes snap and sparkle behind his gold-bowed spectacles. His mind functions on all cylinders.

Has he settled the "national origins" problem?

John G. Sargent, now knowing, would have sidestepped, with all the dexterity of an infirm hippopotamus. "Yes," says Mitchell, instantly, "my answer's gone to the president. It wouldn't be etiquette for me to give it out. It will be announced from the white house."

What all lands is it mandatory for the government to lease upon application?

"That's interior department information."

What names are up for federal judgeships?

"Ask Mr. So-and-So for the list. He'll give it to you."

If Attorney General Mitchell answers, "I can't say," he means, "I won't say." There is nothing he "can't say" connected with the justice department.

Out of all the members of the new cabinet, I would guess that Attorney General Mitchell is the one likeliest to talk back to President Hoover. They are a pretty meek lot, in general. Y. M. C. A. secretaries are afraid of nobody. If they have to contradict, they do it in a nice way—but firmly.

And I would imagine it would make a hit with Mr. Hoover.

Only the "progressives" are a trifle skeptical at Attorney General Mitchell—and not even they because they question his brain-power. As the railroad brotherhoods' organ "Labor"—a very "progressive" publication—expresses it: "His ability is conceded, but his friendship for 'Big Business' is also conceded."

Find Pirates' Cannon Stuffed With Money

(International News Service)

HAVANA, March 22.—Golden onzas of Spain, golden louis of France, golden guineas of Old England, golden eagles of Uncle Sam's coinage, golden doubloons and other broad pieces, together with diamonds, pearls and other jewels—all stained with pirate's blood—are believed to be contained in four ancient cannon found among the hidden treasure at Batavone near Havana some time ago by fish-men and now in custody of customs officials.

The treasure is believed to be part of a pirates' hoard, and the four cannon, spiked and with their muzzles plugged tightly, are thought to contain rich loot.

Judges In Ukraine Let Audience Stay Seated

(International News Service)

CHARKOV, Ukraine, March 22.—The Council of People's Commissioners of the Ukraine issued a decree abolishing the practice of asking audiences to stand up when court sessions are opened or when verdicts are rendered.

Hereafter when the judge and his two assistants enter the courtroom, the secretary will merely call for order and announce, "This court is now in session."

The judge, who is supposed to be one of the masses, needs no special mark of respect from the common people with the exception of ordinary attentiveness, the decree said.

WAR TIME LETTERS BY COL. LEASURE

July 13, 1864.

Dear Belle:
I have received your letter of the third. I have also received a letter from papa, dated the ninth in which he states he will start for home that night. He fears Willie's life. I am anxious to hear from you. Papa said uncle would write me and I am looking for a letter in the morning when I hope to hear Willie well or at least out of danger.

Everything is quiet. I believe the Sixth A. C. has gone north but I am not certain. We have conflicting rumors here in regards the force of the rebels and what they are doing. Grant appears to be taking things so coolly as though there were no rebels within a hundred miles of him.

Captain McPeckers, Co. M, was down at the "forage depot" about three miles from here. He said he saw a common looking man leaning up against the corner of a freight car with his hands in his pockets and a cigar in his mouth and covered all over with dust from head to toe.

Was General Grant about the depot until he got a fair look at him and he turned out to be General Grant. We are still under fire. This makes 23 days and nights that we have been under fire continuously, with scarcely a minute's cessation. It is only so in front of our corps and part of the Tenth corps along the rear of the line it is comparatively quiet.

Uncle Jeff is getting along very well. He has been on courtmartial for a few days and they have a recess today and he is not on duty. He is training back at my headquarters. I mean where I have my horses kept and where my boys stay. He is rusticating. They are fixed up very well and when I want a rest and a good meal I go back there and stay an hour or so and come back to the pit very much refreshed.

We are afraid of an attack from the "Johnnies" in the position we occupy. Death would be their portion were they to advance here. I will close hoping to hear from you in regards to Willie by tomorrow morning's mail and that you are all in good health. Love to all.
Your Loving Brother, George.

The Way OF THE World

By GROVE PATTERSON

UNCLE SAM'S BIGGEST BUSINESS
Walter Brown of Toledo, O., new postmaster general, becomes the government's biggest business man. The postoffice is Uncle Sam's biggest business. Brown will be responsible for spending more than 600 million dollars during his first year in office. He will have authority over more than 300,000 postal employees. He will have much to do with the appointment of nearly 50,000 postmasters. In this he will be helped by the civil service commission, senators and representatives. Men carrying on such executive business in private life would be paid huge salaries—perhaps $100,000 or $200,000. Cabinet officers are paid $15,000 a year. The appeal is to the sense of honor and to the desire to be of large public service.

TOO STEADY

Now and then the news columns tell of men who have not missed a day at some job or other for 50 years. Others have attended Sunday school every Sunday for half a life time without once being absent or even being late. Somebody else has sung in a choir in the same church for a generation. So go the stories of hard, faithful, unrelenting routine. Of course the idea is all wrong. The man who finds that he has done the same, unvarying thing every day or every week for half of his life ought deliberate to miss a day or miss a week or run away for a month. The human being is not at his best when he converts himself into a machine. He wasn't meant to travel forever in a groove. If you have a perfectly wonderful record at any routine performance for a number of years, hurry up and spoil the record. Never let yourself become a slave to routine. It's a sure road to mediocrity and the development of the common-place mind and the common-place spirit.

LABOR AND VACATIONS

Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, says working-men ought to take two weeks of winter vacation in a warm and sunny climate. Such an expression sounds less strange than even the idea of an eight-hour day did some years ago. In the years of a day shift and a night shift of 12 hours each, uncomfortable, unsanitary shop conditions and low wages, the word vacation was almost unknown. Today vacations among workingmen are common enough, and thousands have the automobiles to go fishing in.

HERSELF

A Texas girl, working in a five and ten-cent store, falls heir to $50,000. She says she will keep on working until she gets married. She says she felt the thrill of a lifetime when she was told of her inheritance, but, she adds, "I'm just going to be myself." If all of us, in the wake of good fortune, instead of being swept "upstage" or off our feet or down and out, could just be ourselves, it would be a vastly pleasanter world.

NEW WILMINGTON, March 20.—According to a recent survey made in the college town 39 residents of New Wilmington are alumni of Westminster. Eleven of these alumni are still connected with the college but the rest are citizens of the town having no official connection with their alma mater.

Among the alumni still connected with the college are Dr. R. J. Love, Miss Elizabeth Stewart, Miss Corinne Morcer, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lawther, Mrs. C. B. Robertson, Mrs. J. K. Edmunds, Miss Ina M. Hanna, Miss Dorothy Kirkbride and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McDonald.

Japan Soon to Open Great Radio Station

TOKYO, March 22.—Official opening of a radio transmitting station, said to be the largest in the world, will take place near Tokyo in May, for commercial transmission of messages, particularly in communication with European cities. It was announced by Baron Yasushi Togo of the Japan Wireless Telegraph Company.
Capital was supplied by the Japanese government and private interests. Most of the equipment was manufactured in Germany and turned over to the Japanese government as reparation payments.

Sugar's five uses in the diet . . . Authority explains this delicious food

WE RECENTLY asked the food scientist at one of the great universities to describe the rightful place of sugar in the diet.

"Sugar has five distinctive uses," he said. "1. A conservator of foods. 2. A flavoring substance. 3. A satiation factor. 4. A staple fuel. 5. An emergency fuel."

The scientist showed that sugar is used as a conservator of many foods, especially fruits. Discussing sugar as a flavorer, the scientist said: "One of the most praiseworthy developments of the modern diet lies in the expansion of the use of fresh fruits . . . contingent on the free availability of sugar."

Discussing sugar as a satiation factor, he said: "Topping off the meal with a sweet dessert gives a sense of satiation . . . an important item in the diet."

The scientist pointed out that "Sugar as a staple fuel ranks with starch . . . sugar is more rapidly digested than starch; otherwise they are entirely comparable fuels."

He then defined the use of sugar as an emergency fuel. "The process of respiration is so rapid," he said, "that sugar appears in the muscles (the fire-box of the body) within a few minutes after ingestion."

So it is that sugar is one of the most useful and least expensive of foods. As a flavorer alone, it deserves a place in every diet for making other healthful foods delicious.

Eat all kinds of healthful fresh and canned fruits and vegetables, sweetening for pleasure, remembering the satiation value of ice cream, cookies and cakes for dessert. The best cooks are generous with sugar. The Sugar Institute.

Billy Anderson, 5, Is Accomplished Pianist

(International News Service)
DES MOINES, March 22.—He is only 5, but Billy Anderson certainly "can tickle the ivories."
"A Precious Little Thing Called Love," "Making Whoopee," "Dance Little Lady," "Ramona," "Long, Long Trail"—even "Stars and Stripes Forever."

Billy can play 'em all. Just name your favorite piece and Billy will start in on it, without a moment's hesitation. He's as nonchalant about it as a veteran pianist in a dance orchestra.
"And he hasn't had a lesson in his life," declares his mother, Mrs. Andrew Anderson.
"He just works it out for himself. He plays entirely by ear."

Professor Einstein has been invited to visit Cape Town in August. As time and space are merely relative he will probably go.—The Providence Journal.

New Tongue Has Only 500 Words

LONDON, March 22.—A universal language consisting of 500 words is the desire of Prof. C. K. Ogden, whose aim, as he calls it, is to "debabelise" the world's speech.

In a recent issue of the magazine Psyche he prints a list of scientifically selected words "to form an international auxiliary language—a second language—for all who do not already speak English."

This list of words he calls Panoptic English, because the whole of this new language can be printed on the back of a sheet of notepaper, and "can be seen at a glance." It is divided into the following groups: Operators, necessary names, qualifiers, common things, and opposites.

The new language can be learned in about a month, he thinks, though

General Office Team Defeats Shenango Boys In Annual Conflict

It may have been Euripides or some other of the old time Greek wise crackers who murmured in his beer that it didn't do to count your Rhode Island Reds before the shells were broken.

Whether it was Euripides or Brian Boru makes little difference, the answer is that it took Raymond McBride, sometimes known as Mick, of the Shenango Tin Mill to find out that the old Greek knew his parsnips. After Mick's pre-battle statement on Thursday evening concerning the Shenango Works-General Office battle of bowls, and the resultant sock in the whiskers that the Shenango lads took, Mick wouldn't bet you a Canadian dime that tomorrow was Saturday.

Nite Bebbies

Each year the General Office team of the American Sheet and Tin Plate Company comes out from Pittsburgh, inhales a lot of expensive food, and then proceeds to lam the packing out of the local lads, the carnage of Thursday evening being on the McCoy Alleys.

There is this to be said, the score was close, but like the lad who missed the boat for France, he missed it close enough that he didn't get away. The total (shown by McBride's score sheet) shows Pittsburgh having a grand total of 6434 and Shenango 6413. Had Ed Jenkins or Tom Richards got a couple of strikes when spares appeared the result might have been different, but it wasn't and that equals that.

The evening started off peacefully enough. Just like a Donnellybrook Fair. The boys gathered in the Elks' dining room and rot on the outside of enough food to fill an army commissary, the while Grant Parks and his Whip-Poor-Will were tearing the innards out of a lot of blue harmonies.

Following the feeding, Murrow D. Wells took over the toastmastering and announced there would be little speaking. Cheers. R. J. Hadley, the General Works Auditor of Pittsburgh made the chief address of the evening and complimented both teams upon their sportsmanship. Bert Richards spoke, and Mick McBride stepped into trouble clear to where his goatee would be if he had a goatee.

He announced that from there in, all bets would be off, friendship would be checked at the door and that the Pittsburgh lads were in for the licking of their lives. The sad news will be seen below. Reading from east to west you will readily see that Euripides was right. Or was it Brian Boru?

Judge Quits Bench To Raise Livestock

(International News Service)—MIAMI, Okla., March 22.—Oklahoma boasts of one of the finest Aberdeen-Angus herds in the United States today because a son's interest in cattle aroused the father and finally lured him from the bench of the district court to raise pure-bred livestock.

The father, S. C. Fullerton, retired from the presidency of the American Aberdeen-Angus Breeder's association after holding the office four years. Prior to that time, he was district judge at Miami, Okla. It was in 1919 that his son, Sam, then in his early teens, joined a 4-H club.

Sam acquired a pure-bred Aberdeen-Angus heifer. Her first male calf became the foundation of the famous Fullerton herd of "black beauties." At the peak of the cattle market after the war, Sam persuaded his father to buy eighteen pure-bred Angus at a price in excess of $11,000.

Cattle prices started on a downward trend and a few weeks later, the eighteen head which Fullerton and his son had bought would not bring 15 cents on the dollar.

But the judge stood by his son and to equalize the investment he bought 100 good breeding cows for less than $100 each. The herd began to build up and attract attention. Mr. Fullerton left the bench in 1923 to devote all of his time toward the development of the herd.

DRUG ON THE MARKET

Tourist (at country store)—Have you any camel's hair brushes? Storekeeper—Why, no. What would I do with them? Nobody around here keeps camels.

County Federation Of Women's Clubs

Of Women's Clubs

When the club women of the southwest district of Pennsylvania met in Pittsburgh this week, their state president, Mrs. Frick, counseled them to uphold the hands of President Hoover in his determination to have the laws of the land enforced.

It is a wonderful thing to counsel thousands of women throughout the state of Pennsylvania knowing that, through their fidelity to the Federation of Clubs, she is thus pledging them to uphold the constitution by their every word and action.

Women have always been the vanguard in every battle that has been fought; not on the field with the gun or sword but each with the offering of her man-child armored with the courage that only a mother can give. Thus she has fought for home, for nation, for honor, for liberty.

The smoke of the guns has cleared from the field in the late war for democracy; the roar of the cannon is stilled; the flare of the bursting shells no longer lights the sky; but women are still the vanguard in the battle that is being waged between the forces of evil and righteousness.

Today, however, woman is offering herself through organizations that stand squarely and firmly for the sacredness of the home and its influence; for the nation, purged of lawlessness; for the honor of a great people through righteousness and justice; for liberty that will reach and benefit even the smallest child; for the peace that will grow a brotherhood throughout the whole world.

With their battle-cry of better homes, law-abiding citizens, and liberty for women and children they have little regard for those who flout the righteousness of our nation with unclean pictures and literature; with disrespect for law; with the cry for liberty that would pour liquor down a man's throat but would spell misery, hardships, disgrace for women and children; with the lust for war that would sacrifice our best to satisfy the greed of a few.

At no time in the evolution of the home has there been a greater need for women to take their stand for social purity and the home. At no time has there been a greater need for women citizens to measure up to their responsibility in the enforcement of the law. At no time has there been a more auspicious moment than the present for the clubwomen to show the strength of their womanhood by standing above any move or gesture that links them with the anti-eighteenthers.

Today there is need—and the woman has responded to that need—to get out on the firing line and stay there until the forces of evil that threaten our homes and our nation have been subdued.

It is a wonderful privilege to counsel hundreds of women of New Castle to stand firm for the sacredness of the home and against everything that will blight the lives of women and children, knowing that their hearts will respond to the urge of responsibility.

CANCER KILLS 115,000

YEARLY, PROFESSOR SAYS

(International News Service)—IOWA CITY, Ia., March 22.—Cancer is killing 115,000 persons annually in the United States, according to Dr. Norman F. Miller, of the University of Iowa college of medicine.

The death rate from the disease, declared Dr. Miller, is about one in three. It has increased 47 per cent among men and 21 per cent among women in the last 15 years. Ninety-eight per cent of its victims are more than 20 years old.

Cancer, in Dr. Miller's opinion, is neither contagious nor inheritable.

Olympic Games Staged To Music Of Orchestra

(International News Service)—PARIS, March 22.—To the music of a full orchestra Leo Staudt staged a revival of the Olympic games at the Paris Opera was the corps de ballet.

The number was an operatic interlude entitled "The Trojans." Dancers hurled the javelin, threw the discus and went through symbolic movements of the Decathlon.

This was the first sports ballet ever held at the Opera. It will be repeated from time to time.

Most of the commercial supply of horseshoes raised in this country is grown near St. Louis, Mo.

Corporation Income Tax Paying Reveals Prosperity In 1928

Nearly $600,000,000 Collected From Corporations During Present Month

Tax Payments This Year Running Higher Than 1928 Shown Since March 15

WASHINGTON, March 22. — Income and corporation taxes in March will be about $80,000,000 over the same month last year, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Boud said today.

On the basis of returns so far compiled Boud said the collection would be nearly $600,000,000 for the month, far exceeding all estimated and telling in dollars and cents the story of remarkable individual and corporate prosperity in 1928.

The figures mean the government has actually increased the yield by more than $200,000,000. It was estimated that the one and one-half percent reduction in the corporation tax and increased exemptions to corporations would cut revenues by $135,000,000 and that had to be made up before an increase could be shown on the treasury books.

Surplus Not Estimated
No estimate was made as to the June 30 surplus but on the basis of figures issued it apparently will exceed $100,000,000. This however, will be governed by appropriations to be made by the next congress. It is possible that congress will appropriate $45,000,000 for immediate payment to railroads for the increased cost of handling the mail as a result of a supreme court decision. This sum had not been contemplated by officials in making previous estimates as to the surplus.

Boud explained that it cannot be said as yet whether the prospective increase is a result of heavier corporation tax payment or greater individual payments, although it is probably a combination of both. He said that last year undoubtedly one of remarkable prosperity for individuals as well as corporations, mentioning the large profits obtained from stock market operations.

Tax payments for the first few days after March 15 were running far ahead of last year, but yesterday the collection was $7,000,000 under the same date in 1928.

Iowa Is Called Rich Field For Quack Doctors

By ARTHUR E. DONEGAN

DES MOINES, March 22.—Iowa is a happy hunting ground for quacks and "phony" medical practitioners. The assertion by D. C. Steelsmith, deputy state commissioner of health, was backed up by an estimate that of approximately 1,000 cases of malpractice and quackery that are reported to the state health department annually, convictions are gotten on only eight or 10 a year.

There are between 600 and 900 persons in Iowa presently violating the medical practice statutes of the state, Vernon D. Blank, managing director of the Iowa State Medical Society, estimated. Their presence in the state was explained, state health authorities and medical men said, by the weakness of Iowa's regulatory laws as compared with other states.

Reap Harvest
Fearful of disobeying the medical practice statutes in Illinois, Missouri, Nebraska and Minnesota, the quacks pour into Iowa, they said, and are reaping a harvest in the state. The quacks are particularly successful in operating "cancer clinics" and in treating that disease, state health officials declared.

"Of the 2,725 deaths that resulted from cancer in Iowa during 1928 at least a thousand could have been prevented if the cancer patients could have received early treatment by reputable physicians instead of resorting to 'quacks' declared Dr. Henry Albert, state health commissioner.

Difficulty of securing evidence sufficient to convict the quacks under the present loose and inefficient state laws prevents the state health department from putting them out of business, the commissioner said. H. W. Grete, director of the division of the examinations in the health department, also laid part of the difficulty of conviction to the reticence of patients who have been treated by quacks.

Patients Ashamed
"Many persons have so much faith in the illegal medical practitioners they refuse to testify against them," Grete said. "Others are ashamed when they discover they have been bilked by medical frauds and will not appear against them for fear of being made ridiculous in the eyes of others. And reputable medical men are hesitant about taking action against quacks for fear the public will ascribe the action to professional jealousy."

At least four fraudulent "cancer clinics," treating thousands of patients a year, are now operating in Iowa, Grete declared, but it is impossible to secure evidence strong enough to convict the operators of medical malpractice. The only hope, state health authorities said, in curbing activities of quacks is to warn the people of the state until the laws governing medical practice are modernized and made definite and stringent.

Councilmen Make Tax Exemption

Council today exempted the Sisters Third Order of St. Francis today of paying a tax assessment for the piling in front of South Jefferson street property. The assessment amounted to $80.18. Under the law the owners are exempt, according to a ruling given council by City Solicitor White.

SLIGHT ACCIDENT
Cars of Mildred Levine, 207 Edison avenue, going north on North Jefferson street and Martha Shumway, 447 Neshamock avenue, going south on North Jefferson street and turning into Fifth street, came together Thursday according to a report made to the police. Both were damaged.

Harlan he has delisted into assessments against the Harlan property, known as the St. Cloud building and had found errors had been made and a refund of $872.40, should be paid Harlan to cover the errors which existed from 1921 to 1927, inclusive. Harlan was assessed for land not his. Council agreed with Burns and the error will be rectified. The mistake was made by the assessors.

Council Refuses To Second Reeves Motion

Councilman Reeves today told council that at 1021 West Washington street, Otto property, 50 feet of curb and gutter is gone and offered a motion that the city should fix it. It was reported by Councilman Tyler that there were other similar cases and that if one were fixed by the city, others should receive the same treatment. The motion was not seconded.

Putting Stakes Out For Survey

City Engineer Miller today told city council, which met at city hall that stakes are being put in Dean park as the result of council's order to survey the park. Recently sportsmen asked the city to make Dean park a recreation field. Monuments will be set. The city engineer was authorized to employ several laborers to help place the monuments.

Chicago Hotel Has Centralized Radio

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, March 22.—The first major hotel installation of its new centralized radio system has been announced by the Radio Corporation of America. To the Allerton House of Chicago, largest hotel of the Allerton chain, goes the distinction of providing individual radio reception through a wall-type loudspeaker, to guests in 887 of its 990 rooms, and pioneering in a new field of hotel service.

Other hotels have experimented with radio service in guest rooms. Head-phones, plugged into a base-plug switch and movable loud speakers connected in the same manner, have been installed in several hotels. The Allerton House, however, is the first important hotel to adopt the standard centralized equipment developed only a few months ago by the Radio Corporation's engineers.

Paris Funerals Must Speed Up; Horses Banned

By ALICE LANGEIER
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

PARIS, March 22.—The dead must move faster, according to city authorities in the capital, who are now ordering modern auto-hearses to take the place of the old-fashioned carriage drawn by horses.

French funerals passing through the city from one end to the other have always held up traffic and stolen time from important matters, they say. It would not be so annoying if the living as well as the dead could be taken to the cemetery in some kind of conveyance. But the French custom has long been for friends to follow along after the hearse on foot. The horses, naturally, must make a slow trot. On corner turns they are given free leeway and even a Paris taxi chauffeur would never dream of crossing the procession.

The cult of the dead in France hints very strongly of paganism. The French respect their dead ones, no matter what they were during their lifetimes—this means everybody, perhaps except the different black-capped coachmen and pallbearers who are never happy unless their funeral is a first-class one, which of course means higher tips for them. As it passes through the city the corpse receives a tip of the hat or cap of every man, including that of the fastest chauffeur, as well as the sign of the cross from every woman passerby.

The unusually cold winter is said to be the chief cause of the very noticeable increase in the cost of living in France. At the big markets even the modest potato is nearly 50 per cent higher than at the same period last year. Carrots show an increase of 25 per cent; leeks, which were once considered veritable poor man's food, 50 per cent; cabbages, 75 per cent, as well as lentils.

Turnips, however, are providing the real sensation, at 325 per cent higher than a year ago. Once considered a necessity to make her famous French soup, the housewife is now compelled to call it a luxury and very often dispense with it.

First quality beef costs six cents more per kilo than at this time last year, veal five cents more and mutton about the same.

Island for sale on the Anglo-Norman coast, situated about one-quarter of a mile from the island of Sercey. It boasts of one habitation, surrounded by a small piece of cultivated land. According to an ancient custom, the owner of the island is always considered a member of Parliament of Sercey, which, however, has not convened for many centuries.

Jaywalking is once more taboo in Paris, according to the orders of the well-known prefect of police, Monsieur Chlappe. After obeying the traffic rules for crossing streets only at angles or at certain positions along the boulevards, Parisian pedestrians have once more relapsed into their old habits of imprudence. Gendarmes have been given instructions to watch carefully and report all offenders.

A man may be down and out, but he can always tell a widow how to invest her life insurance.

PLAN TO COMPILE R. F. D. STATISTICS

Rural Postmen To Make Check-up Of Mail Carried; To Start April 1

Commencing Monday, April 1, mail carriers working rural routes out of New Castle post office will begin their annual mail check of the routes which they happen to cover. The check will continue through until April 13.

Among those things which will be recorded are the amount of pieces of first-class mail carried, of second-class, third-class and fourth-class matter, the number of pieces of registered mail, the number of special deliveries carried and the penalties dealt.

Carriers on the R. D. 6 and R. D. 7 routes, who have post offices to serve on their routes, will also weigh their mail both going and coming. The Rose Point office is located on route 6 and the Rugby post office on the route 7 run.

This check on the classifications of each rural delivery is made once a year. The semi-annual check in the city is just being made at the present time.

Feminine "Complex" Is Blamed For Accidents

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 22.—The feminine automobile driver's "courageous complex" is responsible for a large number of minor accidents, in the opinion of Mrs. Mattie G. Tipton, Jacksonville policewoman.

"The woman at the wheel feels that she is entitled to certain privileges, traffic laws or no traffic laws, and she is going to have them," said Mrs. Tipton.

"She cuts corners, ignores traffic lights, and makes pedestrians jump for their lives."

Yet Mrs. Tipton pointed out, most of the serious automobile accidents are laid to the male driver.

"Only about 15 per cent of the automobile fatalities involve women drivers," she commented.

GERTRUDE MERRY
Penn. Mother is Proud, Now

Don't allow your child to remain weakened or run-down for any length of time. In that condition, children are so easily attacked by the millions of tiny germs that are settling and swarming around us. And it's so easy to get the bilious, headachy, constipated, feverish, cross, fretful, puny, underweight ones back into condition, with a hearty appetite, rosy cheeks and abundant energy, by using a purely vegetable product which physicians have endorsed for over 50 years.

Children love the rich, fruity taste of California Fig Syrup and it acts almost like magic to regulate their little bowels and stomachs. It gives these organs tone and strength so they continue to act as Nature intends them to do and you don't have to keep dosing your child. Four million bottles used a year and the enthusiastic words of mothers everywhere prove it gives satisfaction.

Another Pennsylvania mother, Mrs. J. H. Merry, 2 Foster Ave., Philadelphia, says: "My little daughter, Gertrude, suffered terribly from constipation until she got weak, run-down and nervous. I gave her California Fig Syrup and just a little while she was feeling fine, eating heartily and gaining weight. Soon she was her bright, normal self again."

Always ask for California Fig Syrup by the full name to avoid substitutes.

Takes 128-Mile Trip With Broken Spine

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.—Howard Pirth, a Beachwood, N. J. contractor, reached here today at the end of a remarkable automobile trip of 128 miles.

Pirth, while working on a highway near Union City, N. J., on February 23 was struck by an Erie railroad train. Doctors at a Weehawken hospital, where he was taken, found Pirth's skull fractured, his spine broken in two places, eight ribs on his left side and all the ribs on his right side broken, and his legs completely paralyzed. Fifty-two stitches were taken in his scalp. Battered as he was, his doctors said he had no chance to live.

But Pirth held on to life. A radio announcer broadcast his story. Thousands of letters and cards poured into the hospital. They braced Pirth's pluck and enhanced his chances of recovery.

An operation on his spine here at the Jefferson hospital was agreed upon. So Pirth yesterday began his trip to Philadelphia in an ambulance. Only the smoothest concrete roads were followed, which forced a 48-mile detour from the shortest route.

After his ribs have healed Pirth will be operated on by Dr. Torrence Rue, noted spine specialist.

Des Moines Orphans Are Given School

DES MOINES, March 22.—Des Moines' crippled children are more than ever convinced that there's a Santa Claus.

Maybe he does operate from "Sunny California," instead of from the frozen north; maybe he is a couple of months behind schedule—but he "fills the bill" just the same.

Dr. D. W. Smouse of Los Angeles, but formerly of Des Moines, has gladdened the hearts of the youngsters, with the twisted little legs, with a gift of a quarter of a million dollars for a school just for them.

The building, to be known as the D. W. Smouse Opportunity school, is expected to be ready for occupancy next September.

"It is a token of Mrs. Smouse's and my friendship in Des Moines and in the state of Iowa," wrote the physician to J. W. Studebaker, superintendent of schools here.

Eastern Tourists Dispel Illusions

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.—Three adventuresome young men who recently completed a rapid 14,000-mile tour into the heart of the Trans-Jordan, Arabia, and Syria returned with shattering opinions about romantic illusions of the desert.

The travelers—Robert P. Brown of Moorestown, N. J., Richard A. Tausig and Chester P. McCree, both of Germantown, Pa.—were entertained by three kings of the Near East. They met the world-famous figure, Emir Faisal, King of Baghdad; his brother, Abdullah, Emir of Transjordan; and their father, Hussein, now living under the protection of the British government in the Island of Cyprus.

Dusky beauties of the desert are non-existent, the youthful travelers said. The women, they said, are mere drudges. The bandit tribes, instead of sallying forth in gay garments, mounted on beautiful steeds and armed with antiquated guns, now use motor-cars and machine-guns in their forays, they said.

noon was enjoyed by the large number of women present.

Harry Buxton and Howard Brennen were at Erie this week serving as jurors in the federal court.

"Radio Bugs" Seen As Interference Cause

SHENANDOAH, Ia., March 22.—The "radio bug" is a proven fact. It causes interference, too. Grady Fort, an official of the Iowa, Nebraska Power & Light company, investigating complaints from set owners, traced the trouble to a meter fuse housing scores of little insects. The "radio bugs" appeared to be flying ants.

NEW THINGS OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Table Linen

Demands Hand Washing

Caressing White Hands Every Woman's Right

Wash Linens This New Way—Keep Hands Satin-Soft

SPOTLESS table linens—softens only hand washing can make them—are as much a mark of social knowledge as good manners.

To have them—impeccable and flawless—and, at the same time for the housewife to have caressing, white hands is a problem that has now been solved an interesting, new way.

Use any kind of soap, soap powder or soap flakes, in washing linens. But add a teaspoon of CLIMALENE to the water.

This enables you to use ONE-FOURTH the usual quantity of soap. For it softens the water instantly, so that far less soap is needed. Thus avoiding any danger of "soap eat" or fading, so fatal to fine fabrics.

Then by bland cleansing elements IN ITSELF, CLIMALENE acts to gently dissolve any food stains, grease or dirt in things being washed. Thus they emerge soft, spotless, utterly without fading.

Containing superlative SKIN WHITENING and SKIN SOFTENING ingredients—used by scores of beauty specialists—it leaves the hands soft and lovely beyond words.

Women are flocking to it. It costs only a dime at grocers. Try it. Just ask for CLIMALENE.

Gregalach Wins English Race

Grand National Sweepstakes Race Won By Gregalach In England Today

By CHARLES A. SMITH, International News Service Staff Correspondent
Aintree, England, March 22.—Gregalach, owned by Mrs. M. A. Gemmell, of England, won the grand national steeplechase today over a heavy field.

Easter Hero, J. H. Whitney's entry, and favored at the start to win, finished second.

Richmond was third.

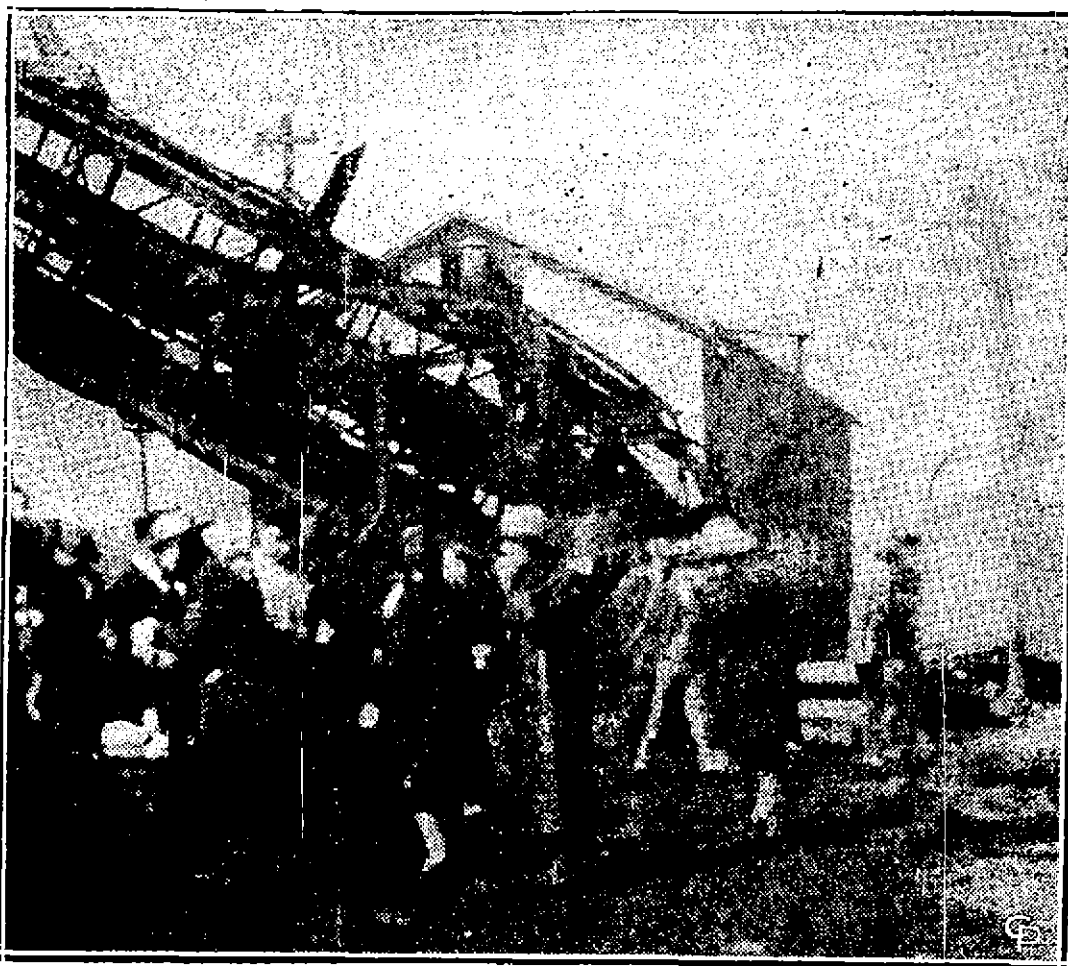

Out of between 60 and 70 horses which started, only 22 remained after the eighth jump. Easter Hero was running strong among the leaders of the field.

A drizzling rain which had started a half hour before the horses went to post, bringing out a sea of somber hued umbrellas, ceased just as the horses lined up at the barrier, providing the best weather for the actual running that has been experienced in any grand national race in years.

Gregalach paid 100 to 1; Easter Hero paid nine to one, and Richmond 11, 40 to one.

Gregalach, by winning, won a purse valued at about $65,000 for his owner. Sixty six horses ran. Twenty-two remained in the running at the end of the first circuit of the course. Easter Hero was prominent in the running through the first two jumps, "Beachers Brook" and "Valentines Brook," and at the "Canal Turn" on the course.

AS KIN OF TRAPPED MINERS AWAITED WORD OF RESCUE

Some of the members of entombed miners' families snapped at the entrance to the Kinloch mine at Parnassus, Pa., after a terrific explosion wrecked the workings of the mine killing more than 25 men. In the background part of the wrecked tipples can be seen. Most of the men trapped by the fiery blast, were rescued.

PARR SCORES

IMMENSE HIT WITH NEW CASTLE AUDIENCE

division of the dance numbers, rhapsodize over the quality of the soloists, and write a tome concerning the appearance of the girls, but after all to really appreciate the thing you must consider it as one finished article.

Some Little of Plot

Mr. Kearns had some little plot worked into the production, but not enough to tax the brain of an Einstein. Fact is, when you can gather a group of girls and voices such as he had last night nobody cares three whoops whether the plot concerned the recent uprising in Mexico, or the price of caviar in Moscow. The plot was just the innuendo that kept the elements together, and as far as this writer could discern had something to do with the offside amours of the president of the Butterfield Country club for the hostess, and likewise the ditto for his wife and the pro. The setting is at the Butterfield Country club but might just as easily been the tap room of an old English tavern. The plot doesn't mean anything so why bring that up?

The playing, dancing, singing et al. does mean something, and concerning Thursday night it meant Success, the kind that means money in the bank and satisfaction in the soul. The kind that augurs future successes for Kearns as a producer and an absolute indifference as to whether about eighty-five per cent of the present theatrical attempts at musical comedy ever play New Castle or not. We can roll our own.

A Two-Act Affair
"Parr" is built in two acts, the information being put in to give the orchestra time to get a drink. The first act is on the lawn (pardon the terrace) of the Butterfly Country Club. After some introduction by a foursome of golfers, the Blue Grass chorus hit the audience right where it feels good and from that on to the finale of the second act the folks out in the customers' seats congratulated each other that they came.

After you read this you will probably call up the editor to insist that the reviewer should have mentioned some particular feature that you enjoyed. 'Gall right. The reviewer is right, so are you, so's your old man.

If this article didn't appear in a great family newspaper, it is, the New Castle News, the reviewer would be tempted to mention the singing of Carroll Kearns, the blackface singing of Al Evans, the absolutely "knock-'em-deadness" of the Royal Derby Girls, the "you know what I mean" of Nelly Brady and Audrey Baker in their solo hoofing, or the splendid work of the Golf Form Girls and the Caddies, or the singing of Howard Wylie. But if he did mention these, some of the vox populi and the pro bono publico would undoubtedly arise en masse and altogether, and demand that some of the other stars be mentioned. Go ahead, tell me how you liked Mrs. William Mayberry's acting and singing or that of Mrs. William J. O'Neil or the solo dancing of the Thelma Sontag or the comedy of the Foursome. Go ahead, help yourself, and after you are all through we'll get together and corroborate each other.

Oh, yes, the second act. It was staged in presentation form, with Carroll Kearns as master of ceremonies and Ted Marlin and his Monarchs up on the harmony platform. What they did to some of the current blues numbers was enough to convince anybody that Whiteman hasn't any monopoly on jazz by a lot. Or say a couple of lots.

Service Division Auspices
"Parr" was under the auspices of the service division of the New Castle Consistory. "Failure" was never in the lexicon of these lads, and the success of "Parr", speaking from a box office standpoint, doesn't prove a thing. It merely was usual for them to put it over.

In the putting of it over they had the very efficient aid of plenty of New Castle folks. Performers, salesmen, publicity men and technicians. And all of them worked together like a watch.

As this article comes to a close there is a suspicion, sneaking over the reviewer that he has missed something, forgotten a line or a phrase that should have been in or failed to mention something of merit. If this be true, it is unintentional. "Parr" is a snappy hoof and yodel show, well built, splendidly directed, and presented on Thursday in such a manner that leaves no regrets. It will be repeated tonight for those who missed last night. Everybody couldn't be there. Somebody had to stay home and mind the baby. But tonight is another night, and if you miss it again tonight you really don't belong. From now on there will be two classes of people in New Castle: those who saw "Parr" and those who didn't.

You may be interested in the program and the cast. Most people are. Leave the dinner go for a few minutes and read it over.

Sheridan-Euclid Sewer Plans Ready

City Engineer Miller today told councilmen that he had prepared plans and specifications for a storm sewer extension between Sheridan and Euclid avenue but council took no action. The extension would course through properties of Linz, Utch, Alexander, Berry, Frasso and McAnilla.

Solicitor White and Councilman Tyler took the position that as a matter of civic pride it would be all right for the city to pay for the sewer but on the other hand it would not be proper.

The storm water sewer has been aired for years and it is anticipated that a move one way or the other will come soon as the property owners threatened court action in a recent session of council.

Stevenson Letters Found At Blackpool

(International News Service)
BLACKPOOL, Eng., March 22.—
Hitherto unpublished letters of Robert Louis Stevenson, in which he talks of desiring death and says it is a pity that suicide is not "the ticket" in the best circles, have been discovered here.

Three of the letters were written during the last year of his life from Valhalla, in the South Seas, where he died in 1894. One dated January 30, 1894, says: "If I could die just now as in, say, half a year, I should have had a splendid time of it on the whole."

"But it gets a little stale and my work will begin to enervate. I now begin to look as though I should survive to see myself impotent and forgotten. It's a pity that suicide is not thought the ticket in the best circles."

In another letter he refers to his splendid life, and says:

"Before very long we shall be in our graves. Fit and well, I have had a splendid life of it, grudge nothing, regret very little—and then only some little misconduct for which I deserved hanging, and must infallibly be damned—and take it all over, damnation and all, would hardly change with any man of my time, unless it were perhaps Gordon."

SAYS IT ENDED 10 LONG YEARS OF ILL HEALTH

Feels 100% Better, Since Ten Herbs Entirely Relieved Health Troubles.

"I can truthfully say that my health is 100% better, since taking Ten Herbs" was the statement of Mr.
John S. Bright, 36 Plus Street, South Side, Pittsburgh, Pa., to the Ten Herbs Man, who is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street.

MR. JOHN S. BRIGHT

this city, where he is daily demonstrating this great natural medicine to men and women of all ages and walks in life.

"I had been troubled with indigestion for the past 10 years," continued
Mr. Bright, who is employed by the Ford Motor Co., in Pittsburgh. "My stomach would fill with gas, which would crowd around my heart and cause severe palpitation and shortness of breath. I lost all desire for any kind of food. I was always constipated and continually used laxatives. I often had headaches, and my vision would become blurred. Nervousness began to trouble me, and I could not sleep well at night. I always felt tired and worn-out. My health finally became so poor that at times I was compelled to remain away from my work. I was told that I had appendicitis, and had almost made up my mind that such might be the case.
"When I heard of Ten Herbs, I began using your medicine, and before long it ended my health troubles. Indigestion and gas pains have disappeared. I am free of shortness of breath and heart palpitation. My appetite has never been better than it is now. I have no more headaches or blurring of vision. Constipation has been entirely relieved, and I no longer have to use laxatives. I get a good night's sleep, and do not feel tired out like I used to. I never lose a day's work now. I gladly recommend Ten Herbs to others."

Thousands of other persons thro-out this section have been helped back to glorious health by Ten Herbs—many after numerous other medicines had failed. This amazing new medicine offers hope to every sufferer from stomach, liver, kidney or bowel trouble. It goes to the very source of such disorders, removes the cause, and thoroughly cleanses and tones up the whole system.

The Ten Herbs Man is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington street, this city, where he is daily meeting the public and explaining the merits of this medicine.

Seine Skyscraper Plan Stirs Paris

(International News Service)
PARIS, March 22.—Plans of an American woman to throw up a skyscraper on the historical island of Saint Louis, just behind Notre Dame in the Seine, have put old settlers on their ear.

"American money has turned our little island upside down," said Paul Pottetvill, one old resident, "but we will fight the project for a skyscraper to the last ditch."

Others charge that wealthy Americans with their bathubs, modern plumbing and original ideas of art and comfort are destroying the authentic aspect of antiquity offered by the island.

"It is outrageous to see new buildings going up," complained Mme.
Pierre Mille, wife of a well known writer. "Modern art and conveniences cannot be denied but those who want them should not be permitted to pervade the old sections of Paris that still preserve their ancient charm."

The question is a serious exhibit, like those of museums, and it should be respected as such.

Of School Office

(International News Service)
BOONE, Ia., March 22.—Both police and school authorities here are looking for the person or persons who broke into the Franklin school and "threw" a beer party in the principal's office.

"The mysterious prowlers, who left the office plentifully decorated with cigars, butts and empty beer bottles, are promised a severe penalty" if apprehended.

20,000 To View Grand Canyon By Airplanes

(International News Service)
DENVER, Col., March 22.—Huge tri-motored passenger planes, traveling the old scenic west, are popularizing the territory made famous in the days of the covered-wagon and frontier times, according to officials of air lines which have invaded the old stamping grounds of the ranger and prospector.

J. Parker Van Zandt, president of the Scenic Airways, operating thru-out the Southwest, predicts that 20,000 "air vacationists" will tour the Grand Canyon National park alone during this season.

Figures show that more than 5,000 persons viewed the Grand Canyon from the air last year.

Air Vacationists
Phoenix, Arizona, is the headquarters for "air vacationists" records show. From that point air lines go north, south, east and west, covering the points of interest dear to the hearts of all America and abounding in beauty and romance.

On these lines are the Grand Canyon, the Navajo and Hopi Indian reservations, the famous Carlsbad caverns, Alamogordo and its world-famed "white sands," the Elephant Butte, Roosevelt and Coolidge dam projects and points in old Mexico.

Trips By Air
These centers of national interest have been heretofore under ban by tourists, as a whole, due to the time factor, but trips which have taken days by foot or burro are now only a matter of four or five hours by air.

Travel bureaus report that more than 50,000 persons traveled into the West for their 1928 vacations. This year there is an even greater trend toward the West, it is reported.

This is an indication that the tourist "crop" will be the heaviest in years while thousands will be "air vacationists" making their entire vacation trip by plane, or by the combinations of rail-air or auto-air.

Wonderful Program Planned For Easter

Choir Of St. Mary's Church Will Render Very Special Music That Day

The boys' and men's choir of St. Mary's church, under the personal supervision of Rev. Fr. P. S. Clifford, now in charge of St. Mary's parish until the new permanent pastor is announced, is preparing a very special program of music for presentation on Easter Sunday morning at the masses to be held on that day.

An effort is being made to have the music presented on this occasion, the finest and best that has ever been presented at the church on Easter Sunday or any other occasion. The two choirs will rehearse diligently until the presentation of the Easter program on a week from next Sunday.

It is anticipated that there will not only be a large turnout for the occasion from among the members of the parish, but also from the city at large.

Sharks Are Dieties Of Lonely Island Women

(International News Service)
SYDNEY, Australia, March 22.—A strange tale of a tropic isle, inhabited solely by women, has been told here by Miss Agatha Clarke, a nurse and teacher attached to the Australian board of missions. The island is Buena, near Tulagi, in the Solomon Islands and its sole inhabitants are 30 native girls and a number of white women teachers.

The island is surrounded by sharks and crocodiles, and the sharks are revered as the island dieties. The bodies of dead are thrown to them, and the speedy dispatch of the corpses into the animals' mouths is watched as a sacred rite.

British Columbia Faces Water Power Shortage

(International News Service)
VANCOUVER, B. C., March 22.—Unless heavy rainfall occurs soon in the Province of British Columbia power companies will be forced to curtail their service.
There has not been such a shortage of water since hydro-electric plants were installed in the province according to W. G. Murin, president of the British Columbia Electric Railway company and who was one of the first to predict a power famine.
A light snowfall during the winter is causing officials concern for the summer's water supply. Storage reservoirs are being quickly depleted they report.

Your Broadway AND Mine BY WALTER WINCHELL

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News

NEW YORK, March 22.—The brilliant, but witty Wilton Lackaye, who has been appearing in the last stage appearance was two years ago at the Lams Club. After the performance at the club, Lackaye, who abhors persons who disturb his newspaper reading, was approached by a moon pitcher here. "Oh, Mr. Lackaye," oh Mr. Lackaye, I saw you act tonight at the Gaiety and you certainly were fine. Tell me, sir, how does it feel to be a great actor?"

"You'll never know," was the devastating retort.

YANKEE STUFF

Marshall Neilan, the clown, tells of a little old Northampton, Mass., man who witnessed the return to town of the Calvin Coolidges. He apparently was disappointed for he rushed home, covered his spouse and grumbled: "Well, there can't be much fun being president. Cal's home and he ain't even got a motor car. I guess they don't make much money being president, because he's even got to write pieces for the magazines. And imagine, Neilan, just imagine, George Washington's wife sellin' candy!"

TCH-TCH-TCH

And then there's the panic of a crack dealing with the local theatrical slump. On a recent night, at the final curtain, the manager in a graceful little speech, informed the author that the audience was not in the house.

ORIGIN

Your recent reference to the Alexander cocktail recalls the incident which caused this drink to be originated," writes Felix. "Some years ago, during the period when 'Phoebe Snow' was being featured in the Lackawanna railroad advertising, the officials of the company arranged for a dinner at Rector's. Troy Alexander was then associated with the famous place, and to him fell the assignment of planning the dinner in a big way. "He decided to follow the 'Phoebe Snow' idea, in which white was the predominating note. After getting the dinner pretty well laid out, Alexander found himself stuck when it came to concocting a white drink with a lot more potency than milk. For several days he experimented, and finally hit upon the cocktail that bears his name, and which, in case you do not know, may now be had in every country in the world where a mixed drink is available, including, of course, America.

SIMILES

AS IF YOU DIDN'T KNOW

W. W. Scott argues that kings and presidents have their heads on coins, but Scots have their minds on them.

HABIT

"They were reminiscing again about the late Walter J. Kingsley, and he said: 'He certainly press-agented everything in his time, from the Russo war to a Ziegfeld show. Say, that guy wrote so many passes in his career that when he began to sign his name to anything he preferred it by marking down in parentheses the numeral 12.'"

NEW YORK, March 22.—They are swapping the one about the clever hostess who was fed up with people who crashed her parties. One hostess observed a fellow, known for his gate crashing, at her affair, and she used great tact letting him know that he wasn't wanted.

She approached the intruder and said: "Waiter, tell the butler that there is an unwanted man present, and instruct him to have the person thrown out."

A LA O. HENRY

The same McGuire relates this true story, which he asserts happened to him. It was in Atlantic City several seasons ago. He frequented a speakeasy there which featured a roulette wheel. A pan-handler in the joint touched him for a dollar.

"Thanks," said the panhandler. "When this goes, I go, because I can't ask for another and I can't make one."

Thus declaring himself, the bum sat at a corner table, dejected. A woman rushed over to him and excitedly said: "Give me a dollar, will you, stranger? I feel lucky!"

He turned the borrowed dollar over to her.

She played No. 13 and won! Gathering up the winning $36 and the one she borrowed, she brought the coin to the bum's table.

"I told you I felt lucky, stranger!" she cried. "Come on, I'll split it with you."

"I won't do anything of the kind!" he thundered. "I never took money from a dame in my life, and I won't start now!"

The next morning his lifeless body was found on the beach.

THE BIG HIGGROW

One of the elevator operators in a newspaper building (who is a gangster off duty) did the music critic a favor, and he was rewarded with a pair of Carnegie Hall seats to hear Heifetz. After the great violinist finished a number which drew salvos of handclapping the gorilla's wife turned and said:

"Nice, ain't it?"

"Yeah," was the reply. "That guy sure scrapes a mean gull!"

HOW TO FIGHT EXCESS FAT

There are hard ways, like starvation, but fewer and fewer employ them. There is a pleasant way, modern and scientific, which combats the cause. A vast number of people now use it. And the slender figures now seen everywhere are largely due to that.

That method is embodied in Marmola prescription tablets. People have used them for 20 years—millions of boxes of them. And everybody, in almost every circle, sees the change. New beauty, new health, new vitality.

Ernest Oshkosh, who died several days ago, assumed leadership under a death-bed command of her grandfather, Chief Neopli Oshkosh. She is known outside the tribe as Alice C. Oshkosh.

Famed French Farm Needs Rich American

(International News Service) PARIS, March 22.—Unless a Rockefeller or some other rich American comes to the rescue, the celebrated little farm of Marie Antoinette in the grounds of the chateau of Versailles will soon be in ruins.

French newspapers are sounding a cry of alarm and urging the State to take steps in the matter, if no other can be secured. The old windmill, the milk-house, the little dovecote and the huntsman's hut are all showing signs of long years and bad weather. The doors are disjunct, the windows broken and the roofs leaking.

Napoleon I put the little "hameau" into good shape immediately after the Revolution; Louis Philippe, took his turn at restoring it; and the government under the Second Empire saw to it that the build-

Liquor Conspirators Will Be Given Trial In Pittsburgh Court

(International News Service)
ERIE, Pa., March 22.—Although the Federal grand jury sitting here has returned indictments against the 16 alleged members of the gigantic, inter-state rum ring conspiracy, it was intimated today by the district attorney's office that the defendants will not be brought to trial until the court returns to Pittsburgh for the special April session.

The indictments cover six counts charging conspiracy to violate the national prohibition laws. The case was worked up by Prohibition Administrator or John D. Pennington. It involves men from Washington, Fayette and Greene counties in Pennsylvania, and two counties in West Virginia, which border on the Keystone state.

Sheriff Among Conspirators
Sheriff Arno S. McClellan, of Greene County, the most prominent of those already apprehended, was among the indicted. Albert H. Scales, former prohibition agent, and Archie Negleman, suspended dry officer and alleged ring leaders of the conspiracy, were named in the indictment. Neither have been apprehended. Negleman is believed to be in Canada, and Scales is said by this wife to be seeking the missing agent. Mrs. Scales declared to prohibition agents that her husband was the "victim of circumstances" and was as anxious to find Negleman in order that he may clear himself, as the government men are to arrest him.

Others against whom indictments were returned were: Edward Graves, Mr. and Mrs. George Crager, Ernest Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Chance, Owen Brown, August Bosio, Mike Medvid, Raymond Bittinger, Tony Sidori and John Mancini.

Testimony said to have been presented to the grand jury alleged that dry agents and police of Greene county "upped off" the alleged rum ring when raids were planned, and that each "tip" cost the bootleggers $200.

Local Firm Plans Apollo High School

The Apollo board of education has authorized the A. L. Thayer Company of this city to proceed immediately on the plans and specifications for the new 16-room high school to be erected there.

Representatives of the local architect firm declare that the Apollo school will be an exceptional building in that it is being patterned after the manner of modern French architecture. The building proper will be erected on a steep hillside while wings will extend out on other levels. It will be of brick construction, with limestone trim.

It is hoped that work on the school will be completed and the classrooms ready for occupancy by the middle of next September.

WELL!
At a military dance, one officer said to another as they adjourned for refreshments:

"I don't know how it is, but my wife's lipstick always tastes different from any other woman's," and he carefully wiped his lips.

"Yes, doesn't it," remarked the other absent-mindedly.

Grove City Plant Merger Completed

Million In Contracts To Be Transferred To Grove
City Plants

GROVE CITY, Pa., March 22.—The merger of the C. and G. Cooper company and Bessemer plants announced yesterday, which was made Monday in New York, means an increased prosperity for Grove City is the prediction of Dr. E. J. Fithian of Grove City, president and manager of the Bessemer company who holds the position of chairman of the board of directors in the new concern, the Bessemer-Cooper company.

For the past several years the Cooper company with their plant at Mt. Vernon, Ohio, has been so cramped for room that they have been unable to complete $1,000,000 worth of work contracted for which will now be done at the foundry and machine shops of the Grove City plant.

With this increased amount of business at the Grove City plant, local prosperity cannot help being favorably affected, the company officers point out.

The merger makes the Bessemer-Cooper company the largest in their field in manufacturing gas and oil engines. That the merger is accepted by big business as a successful venture is indicated in the fact that applications for stock being sent to New York are being returned, marked "all sold."

of Miss Bernice Atwell and Professor Jack, was attended by a large number of interested people and the program was carried out in a very enjoyable way.

UNDERGOES KNIFE
T. J. Robinson of this place was operated on at the Baskin Roseman hospital Monday for appendicitis. His condition is reported favorable today.

LEAVE ON TOUR
Mr. and Mrs. M. L. McBride left this week for an extended trip to California. They expect to be gone for several weeks. During his absence his work will be carried on by Attorney Wheeler.

Class To Be Initiated At Meeting On Wednesday,
April 3

The final business session of New Castle Circle No. 5, Protected Home Circle, held on Thursday night in Odd Fellows hall closes a term of many years standing.

Visiting circles are expected upon this occasion and a full evening of business and pleasure combined will sound out the first gathering of the members in their new home—members will please notice the change in the hour of meeting which is at eight o'clock.

On Thursday evening, March 28, the degree staff will hold a card party in Odd Fellows hall, North Mill St., at eight o'clock with the following committee in charge. # As World's Third Richest Man, Mellon Is His Own Handiwork

Washington Correspondent for Central Press and The New Castle News

WASHINGTON, March 22.—It seems Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon to be considered a hereditary multi-millionaire.

He inherited a paltry few hundreds of thousands only—less than a million all told. His heritage included a bank, but by no means the largest one in the Pittsburgh of that day. As the world's third richest man Mr. Mellon is his own handiwork.

He has roughed it in his time. Once he and his brother spent several nights in their blankets on the Dakota prairie—when it was a territory—under the stars. They were looking over some land.

Parting from them, "I just thought you two fellows was a couple eastern dudes," said their guide, "but yer regular guys, after all."

Mr. Mellon could have plenty of such yarns in circulation concerning him if he would loosen up and tell a few more.

Unfortunately he cannot—too shy. Half a dozen cabinet members already have a wider acquaintance in Washington than he, after two or three weeks in office—and Mr. Mellon is entering on his ninth year.

Nevertheless, the secretary of the treasury is not of the aloof, haughty type. Truly, he is dignified. No caller with any sense of the fitness of things would slap him on the back. Still he is perfectly approachable. Only somebody else must make the approach. In matters of human contact it simply is not in Mr. Mellon to take the initiative.

Very well, then, let's introduce ourselves. "The greatest secretary of the treasury since Alexander Hamilton"—as some would say he is and others emphatically deny—is worth meeting at any rate.

Of course, it must be done diplomatically. However, the occasion is auspicious. On March 24 Mr. Mellon celebrates his 74th birthday. We will congratulate him on his anniversary.

He sits behind his desk in the treasury building, smoking a cigar—the portrait of some long past secretary, in wig and ruffles, on the wall back of him.

Usually described as a little man, he is no midget—5 feet 8 or 9. Thin, to be sure.

ANDREW MELLON

Acknowledging our congratulations, we notice that he stammers slightly. He looks his age—but healthy.

Formerly he played golf. Now the only exercise he gets is walking, but he does a good deal of that. He can walk rapidly and far.

On a recent trip he took to Europe, as he was traveling through Switzerland, his auto broke down. The spot was 12 miles from anywhere. There was a small mountain to cross, too. Mr. Mellon hiked it, mountain and all—said he enjoyed it and showed no signs of weariness. Pretty good for 70-odd.

His assistants evidently like him.

So do other folk, who have succeeded in establishing relations with him. All accounts indicate that he is particularly accommodating.

Every public man of much consequence gets stacks of requests in every mail for weird favors of all sorts—trifles, generally, but a pest. They go into the discard in most government offices, as impossible to bother with. Mr. Mellon makes a point of examining his—and complying with them if he can.

One little girl, cast for the role of secretary of the treasury in a masquerade, asked him for a pair of gloves, to give the stunt verisimilitude.

Secretary Mellon sent her quite a complete outfit of haberdashery.

The secretary is more of a social success than his supposed reticence might seem to promise.

In a limited circle they say he is extraordinarily entertaining.

For one thing, he has an exceptional education. He complains of lack of time to read now, but he has done a deal of it. He has artistic tastes, which money has enabled him to improve until he is a real connoisseur, as well as a great collector. He has traveled everywhere, knows more of the world's celebrities intimately, and of course has had a hand in nearly every important national and international event in the last decade.

All these are highly interesting subjects to hear him discuss.

Aside from that, he lived through the romantic period of Pittsburgh's industrial development. There were mighty few enterprises which his bank missed taking a share in, and there are not many lines of human activity that he is unfamiliar with—from agriculture in the arid west to deep sea shipping.

Credited with holding Pennsylvania in the hollow of his hand politically, Secretary Mellon professes little real concern in politics—further than that his vast holdings in the Keystone state have forced him to give considerable attention to doing as its capital.

He states himself that he has kept the treasury on a strictly efficiency basis, regardless of partisanship.

When he came to Washington eight years ago, he was a radical anti-red tapist. Today he concedes that he was partly mistaken. Government transactions, he says he has discovered, cannot be expedited like private business, in which the individual who arrives at a snap judgment is the sole loser if he proves to have been over prompt, to the extent of falling into an error.

Many an all-night ride Mr. Mellon takes from the capital, and back again the following night, for a day with his son Paul on the Yale campus. He was delighted with the marriage of his daughter Alice, three or four years ago, to young David Bruce, son of the recently retired senator from Maryland—but it cost him his home-keeper.

He has lived by himself since, in his big establishment on Massachusetts avenue, the richest, but perhaps the loneliest, old man in Washington.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 22.—With the special session of congress approaching and tariff revision looming large on the political landscape Senator David A. Reed promises, political observers here believe, to be a powerful factor to be reckoned with when the senators get their hands on the tariff bill from the house.

Although the Pittsburgh senator has not reached that pinnacle of power in the senate which was attained by the late Boies Penrose, he is one of the foremost Republican members of the finance committee which will set about to rewrite the tariff bill. Backed by the demands of the powerful industries of Pennsylvania and of the other eastern states he will demand many increases in rates. In effect, he is going to ask for a general revision.

Supporting Senator Reed will be other senators representing the great and large industrial centers and it appears safe to hazard the guess that when the tariff measure goes on the statute books it will show a considerable conversion to their wishes. It seems useless to imagine that congress will pass a tariff measure that raises rates along the agricultural line generally, but contains few adjustments of rates demanded by industry.

New Type Mail Plane Is Tested On Coast Route

By ROY E. DUNNE,
International News Service Staff Correspondent
CHICAGO, March 22.—Flying the latest departure in mail planes, Eric Nelson, famous round the world flyer, arrived in Chicago with a ship which is expected to work important changes in the handling of mail and express, for the ship was designed as result of experience obtained from eighteen months of flying on the "Longest Airplane Laboratory in the World," the San Francisco-Chicago air mail route of 2,000 miles.

On this route a plane has to fly from sea level to 14,000 feet altitude, through temperatures ranging during the year from ninety below zero to 135 degrees F. and over sun-baked deserts, snowcapped mountains and forests of great expanse.

This eighteen month test was carried on preparatory to the placing of twenty-five of these new mail cargo planes in service on the San Francisco-Chicago mail route which are expected to carry one quarter of the entire mail load of the country.

The new ship, the Boeing "95" can carry 1610 pounds of mail and cargo at a top speed of 142 miles an hour and with a full load can take off the ground in ten seconds after a run of only 525 feet and will land at the low speed of fifty-seven miles per hour which enables it to more easily get in and out of small airports and emergency fields.

Has Special Feature
To cut down the time required at division points to load and unload mail and cargo, special features have been worked out to expedite the handling of mail and the claim is made that this cargo ship can be serviced and unloaded considerably faster than existing types.

The safety and comfort of the pilot is a matter of prime consideration in the designing of these planes. The cockpit is heated and the pilot sits in a well-padded adjustable high-backed chair, so adjusted and so situated that he has excellent vision on all sides.

The cockpit is a mass of instruments which enable the pilot of the ship to know his angle of flying even when fog closes in. In addition to the electrical equipped instruments, there is the special turn and bank indicator, air speed indicator, altimeter, rate of climb meter, special band indicator and tachometer. The ship is also equipped with wheel brakes, which are operated from the cockpit, through a level.

Carries Flares
Two parachute flares, augmented by flood lights which can be controlled from the cockpit and which are retractable into the wings to assure the pilot of an easy landing in night flying and at his right hand is a lever which operates a fire extinguisher in the engine compartment assuring absolute safety from fire.

As the San Francisco-Chicago air mail route is the longest commercial line in the world the placing of this new type of plane, which is fifteen miles per hour faster than the ships which have been operating over this route, is expected to expedite the handling of the air mail both east and west.

Modern Love Is Like New Toy, Says Author

(International News Service)
PARIS, March 22.—Modern love is like a new toy, according to Leopold Stern, French author—that is, a toy with a spring.

"It runs smoothly," he explains, "as long as it is wound up, but stops short the minute it has run down."

"Love nowadays is composed of three periods: the first eight days for falling into it; the second, for loving a little; and the third for forgetting. Modern love is no longer the real thing."

FARMERS URGED TO CUT COSTS
Farmers of the Transvaal are being urged by the government to organize and adopt labor-saving methods in order to counteract the present agitation of native laborers for higher wages. Use of modern methods of farming and of modern machinery is being advocated, and an investigation into the possibility of manufacturing motor fuel for use on farms is being conducted.

Revival Opens In Tabernacle

Dr. Thomas Logan, pastor of the Pentecostal Tabernacle on South street, who is conducting a special series of evangelistic services, this week delivered an able message Wednesday evening on the subject, "The Preparation Necessary to Have a Revival."

Rev. Logan declared that we can have a revival when we pay the price for it. A revival is born in Heaven and comes by mighty supernatural work of the Holy Ghost, when the people of God meet with requirements. Several things that hinder a revival were mentioned and an urgent appeal was made to those present to remove all barriers and pray for a revival.

The subject of the sermon this evening is "The Results or Outcome of a Heaven Sent Revival."

TON IN A MATCH BOX
There are two or three stars known to us which are believed to possess enormous densities," said Professor A. S. Eddington in a lecture at the Institute of Mechanical Engineers in London recently. "The best known of these is the Companion of Sirius. The density is found to be 60,000 times that of water; a ton of its material would go inside a match box."

"But Postum did more in my case. Its use in place of caffeine improved my disposition amazingly! Heretofore, on going home in the evenings, I felt extremely irritable. Only by keeping closest guard over my tongue and actions could I refrain from outbursts of unjustifiable temper. Faded nerves, overstimulated by caffeine, were probably to blame."

Expect Congress To Heal Tariff Breach

See Tariff Barrier Between Two Major Parties Beginning To Crumble

Democratic Ideas Are Changing On Biggest Issue With Republicans

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 22.—"The time has come," the Walrus said, "to talk of many things: Of shoes—and stumps—and sealers' wax— Of cabbage—and kings." When congress convenes in extraordinary session next month there will be much talk of many things. Oratory will run the whole gamut of industrial and agricultural production. But out of all will come a practical, if not admitted, bridging of the traditional and historic tariff breach between the Republican and Democratic parties.

Dixie is no longer the agricultural south of the Civil war days. It has felt the need of growth in manufacturing. It has felt industrial impulses. The force which is changing southern life and production is also moulding the political thought of the south, bringing its Democratic leaders round to thinking somewhat after the manner of New England Republicans when the tariff question is food for thought.

Democrats the country over are generally clinging to the states' rights principle—one of the major grounds of Republican and Democratic dissension—but the tariff barrier between the two major parties is crumbling. This change in the way of Democratic thinking may be attributed to the change of the economic and industrial map of the country. With the development of industry and manufacture in the south with the aid of northern capital, southern Democrats are beginning to think that perhaps a little protection for these infant industries would not be misplaced. The north has also enjoyed it for years and has grown and prospered, they think, so why not the south.

Will Seek Protection. The demands of sectional and local industries are going to hurry their representatives in congress. The southern Democrats will be urged on to take care of the needs of their new industries; the Democrats of the north Atlantic states will see to it that the demands of their industries are met as fully as possible.

In the last tariff revision of 1922 it is well known that many of the southern Democrats wanted high tariff rates on the products of the industries which were growing in the south. They assailed it is true, the high rates of the Fordney-McCumber measure, but nevertheless they were not backward in seeking protection for the manufacturers and producers of their sections.

Of course, in the coming session of congress there will undoubtedly be much said on the historic differences of the parties. Senator Simmons of North Carolina, small of size but great of influence as a veteran Democratic leader on the finance committee, is expected to fight to keep the tariff chasm unbridged. But the general feeling here is that such efforts toward low tariffs are in the main for political purposes.

Not Issue of Parties.

At the time when General Winfield Scott Hancock ran for the presidency it was campaign fashion to hold high the tariff variance of the parties as paramount. It was not unnatural, hence, that he should have been the subject of chuckles and guffaws when he termed the tariff a local issue. If that brilliant general, but less able politician, were overlooking the national political arena today he would perhaps have a few laughs himself, at knowing that the tariff question is not the issue of parties but the issue of clashing interests, sectional and more or less local.

The clash comes not alone between Democrat and Republican, and north and south, but between agriculture and industry, and farmer and industrial worker. The pressure for an extra session of congress to change tariff rates has come in large part from the agricultural interests. Farm leaders see a need for coordination of tariff revision and farm relief. Unless protection is given, they argue, to farm products there appears to be little salvation in any farm relief program.

And here another controversy rises. Spokesmen for the agricultural interests in congress are insisting that while the rates on agricultural products should be high, the tariff on those things the farmer needs and buys must be kept at a low level. On the other side of the controversy, the city industrial worker who expects to benefit from protection to manufacturers is unwilling to accept any in-

Before and After Childbirth

"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my first baby was born and I am taking it now for my weakened condition after the birth of my second boy. Although I never have put on any flesh I am feeling good now and the Vegetable Compound has helped me in every way. It is surely a wonderful medicine and I will be glad to answer letters for I recommend it highly."—Mrs. Fred W. Davey, Madison, Kansas.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

creased costs of food and payment for himself and his family.

Is Serious Question. It is not unlikely that agricultural representatives will be found voting for high tariff rates on agricultural products and then turning face about and voting against high levels in the manufacturing schedules. Industrial representatives will find themselves in the embarrassing and inconsistent position of voting for raises on manufacturing rates and putting thumbs down on increases on agricultural products.

Nevertheless, some Republican leaders in reviewing the past troubles of the party in tariff revision look with misgivings on the coming overhauling of tariff schedules as a forerunner of a serious 1930 election plight. But these are only a few of the things which will perplex congress when it begins "to talk of many things."

DANDRUFF

A Sure Way to End It

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain ordinary liquid acetone from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when reclining; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft and look and feel a hundred times better.

Activities At City Mission

Rev. F. A. Childs will teach again this evening at the City Rescue Mission, 17 S. Mercer street, taking for his subject "The Book of Revelations." Rev. and Mrs. Childs have been conducting special services at the Mission for the past ten days and will continue these special meetings all this week. A special feature of this evening's service will be vocal and instrumental musical numbers to be rendered by Mrs. A. L. Rigby and Mrs. John Wink. These ladies are talented musicians and are well known in the city.

Saturday evening Mr. Childs will continue teaching from the Book of Revelations. This service will be in the form of a Praise and Testimony service. Everyone is welcomed to attend. The girls of the Mission Sewing school will meet for their regular work on Saturday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. One hour of this period is given to devotional service and one hour to sewing work. Many girls have been attending these sessions from week to week and much has been accomplished during the past months.

Super Power Engines For Boston And Maine

International News Service
BOSTON, March 22.—Five new "super power locomotives" of the latest design, each of them being 100 feet long from coupler to coupler, will be acquired by the Boston and Maine railroad. These huge iron monsters, which will have a "chassis" cast in a single piece, will each cost $100,000, raising the road's investment in new locomotives to $2,300,000 within 12 months.

The new engines will weigh, ready for service, 337 tons and will carry 24 tons of coal and 18,000 gallons of water. The Lima Locomotive Works at Lima, O., are the builder of the "super power" engines.

Ants are said to be able to recognize one another by sight, touch and smell.

To Study Relief Given Veterans

Red Cross Committee Of Three To Ascertain If Enough
Is Received

Ivor Davis, Orville Potter and Pat J. Dempsey have been appointed by the local Red Cross to comprise the committee which will investigate the conditions of disabled men's cases to ascertain whether or not they are securing the maximum amount of relief they are entitled to. The committee will soon function. Each committee member is acquainted in some way with ex-service men's relief. Mr. Davis is the commander of the Perry S. Gaston post of the American Legion. Potter is the commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Dempsey occupies an active Red Cross capacity.

Expect To Revive Legion Magazine

Plans are being made to revive the old Legion Booster, a small magazine which was issued monthly by the Perry S. Gaston Post, American Legion, to acquaint legionnaires of the various activities which the post carried on.

The first number will probably be put out during the month of April.

STAGE FOLKS' DIVORCES EXPLAINED BY ACTRESS

International News Service
DES MOINES, March 22.—Actors and actresses, if they want to be happy, shouldn't marry each other. That's the opinion of Lillian Foster, former Broadway star appearing as the guest star of a local company. A change of taste—that's what causes the frequent divorces among stage folk, Miss Foster says. For actresses to marry within the profession, she declares, is not only dangerous but often fatal, since it means separation over long periods of time and no chance to "keep the home fires burning." But a business man is different. "You see," she explains, "a business man, if he had the money, could go to see his wife no matter where she might be playing."

International News Service Staff Correspondent

DENVER, March 22.—An "assault" upon the national capital by a band of 2,000 Indians from the open spaces of the west, is being planned by Standing Bear, great chief of tribes in the western and southwestern states.

The "invasion" will be one of peaceful penetration, however, and the "Great White Father"—in this case Herbert Hoover—need have no fear of flying tomahawks or secret ambushes.

Thousands To Gather.
According to Standing Bear, several thousand Indians, representing every tribe in a dozen or more western and southwestern states, will gather in Rapid City, S. D., on July 29 next for a six-day council—"the greatest and last"—the chief says.

Following the conference, it is planned to have about 2,000 Redmen start an overland trek in covered wagons, drawn by shaggy cauyotes, to Washington, where petitions will be presented to the president and the national congress seeking "redress" for the Indians.

Included in the petitions will be one for payment of money from the government to the Indians for the rich Black Hills country of South Dakota, now valued at several hundred million dollars.

The Indians will also seek aid from the government in fighting tuberculosis among the remaining Redmen of the west.

Discuss Education.
Educational and other matters will also be discussed.

Chief Standing Bear declares the Rapid City council will probably be the last great gathering of the colorful Indian tribes. The younger generation, he explains, are forsaking the custom of "tribal" gatherings, and the older members of the various tribes are rapidly passing to the happy hunting grounds.

The gathering in Rapid City is expected to be a gala affair, with probably the last appearance of the "sun dance" as a tribal ceremony.

Dancing Now Is Part Of Day In Riviera Casinos

(International News Service)
NICE, March 22.—Whatever may be the case in London or Paris, there seems to be no wane in enthusiasm for dancing on the Riviera where it is now taken as a matter of course in the day's pleasure at all the resorts around here.

A look-in at any of the smart amusement places as Cannes, Nice, Monte Carlo, Menton or Antibes, Hyeres and Juan-les-Pins, show plainly that the all-too-small space given up to dancing in the center of the cafe restaurant or tea-room has never been so much in demand as this season.

British and Americans seem to prefer one-steps, fox-trots and waltzes, while the French, Italian and Spanish visitors do the tango. Billy Arnold's popular orchestra has re-introduced old-fashioned waltzes such as "The Blue Danube" and "The Merry Widow," and now and then an old-time polka is played which makes even the old folks want to wiggle their toes.

Interest in small yachting this season has been very much stimulated by the fact that the King of Denmark, on his annual visit to the Riviera, has taken up racing at Cannes. He made his second triumph recently, when steering "Dana" he won the race for sixmetre boats by one minute 15 seconds.

This victory was all the more remarkable because the "Dana" is a very heavy weather-boat and not suited to southeast breezes.

Upon his arrival, the King signed in the Golden Book and distributed the prizes.

The royal couple which is undoubtedly one of the most popular in Europe, is very often seen around the "roule" table at roulette at one of the Casinos or the Sporting Club at Monte Carlo. The King and Queen are also very fond of polo and frequently attend the matches at Mandelieu.

The Queen is particularly fond of tennis and has her game every morning seldom breaking the rule, even on Sunday.

Another royal visitor who has been attracting a great deal of attention this season is Prince Carol of Rumania, who is very much seen on the Croisette or the Promenade des Anglais with his famous red-headed friend, Mme. Lupescu.

At daily mannequin parades, visitors are enabled to see Miss 1929 wearing the clothes which the rulers of fashion picture women wearing in 1929.

Probably the uppermost wish in President Hoover's heart just now is that he could shake the hand-shakers.—The Muncie Sunday Star.

Farm Population 27,511,000, Lowest Figure In 20 Years

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The Department of Agriculture announced today that the farm population was now the smallest in 20 years, with 27,511,000 on the farms on January 1, compared with a peak of 32,000,000 in 1909.

The bureau's estimate also shows a decrease in farm population during the last year despite improved agricultural conditions and a slight slackening in industrial employment, the January 1, 1929 figure comparing with a farm population of 27,699,000 persons on January 1, 1928.

The decrease in farm population in the last year would have been much greater were it not offset by an excess of births over deaths, the figures revealing that in the movement of population from and to farms, 1,950,000 persons left farms during the year and 1,322,000 persons moved from cities to farms.

The movement away from farms slowed up somewhat during the year compared with immediately preceding years, but the movement from cities to farms was also smaller. Thus it is shown that 1,950,000 persons left farms during the last year, compared with 1,978,000 in 1927 and with 2,155,000 in 1928. The movement from cities to farms was 1,302,000 persons last year, 1,374,000 in 1927 and 1,135,000 in 1928.

The large farm birth rate of 23 births per 1,000 persons and small death rate of eight deaths per 1,000 persons has been a big factor offsetting the farm-to-city movement, so that the net loss of farm population last year was 188,000 persons, compared with 193,000 in 1927 and with 649,000 in 1928.

Lively Election Interest In Borough Of Ellport

First Election For Baby Boro Of Lawrence County Occurs On April 2

Two Tickets In Field For First Election Of Municipality

With the swaddling clothes of incorporation still hampering its movements, Ellport, the baby boro of Lawrence county is engaged in a lively little political battle. The election occurs on April 2.

On the surface Ellport is a peaceful little place. Stretching out along the highway beyond Burnstown and Wurttemberg, it comprises that portion of Wayne township formerly known as "The Bend" so called because it jetties out into the Connoquessing creek. The homes are not elaborate, but neatly kept. The boro is not large, nor yet could it be called compact.

Settlement of Mill Workers. It is a settlement of honest, industrious mill workers who are engaged in work at the National Tube company. Because of the level country out beyond the plant they settled out there and several groups of homes make up the major portion of the boro's population.

But now about the political contest. A boro must have officers and officers are elected.

To get back to the picture a bit further, the agitation for making the district a boro was fostered to a large extent by Squire Thomas A. Gartley. The squire believed that the time had come for the district to put on the clothes of incorporation and for many months he argued the question, secured a petition and finally after much opposition, had the matter settled by the court.

When the district was made a boro the squire lost his commission as a justice of the peace of Wayne township. However, there is more dignity in being a Burgess of a boro and with the incorporation details attended to, the squire announced that he would be a candidate for the office of Burgess of Ellport.

Rallying to the standard of the doughty squire came the following men:

For town council to serve until the first Monday of January, 1930, John Erdos, Robert D. Gartley, James A. Liebenow, John Patridge. To serve until the first Monday of January, 1932, Louis Parkas, Harry Kiddon, James Rabosky.

Tax collector to serve until the first Monday of January, 1930, A. J. Mahlin.

Boro auditor to serve until the first Monday of January 1930, John Zollman. To serve until the first Monday of January 1932, Russel Gilchrist. To serve until the first Monday of January 1934, Felix Sluga.

Assessor, Joseph Emilko. High constable, Russell Malin.

With Rev. Andor Harsany as candidate for Burgess, the following candidates filed under the People's party:

For town council to serve until the first Monday of January 1930, Steve Barkay, Michael Huber, C. R. McElwain, F. E. Wehman. To serve until the first Monday of January 1932, Michael Dudash, Jr., Charles Frazier, Clarence E. Hollerman.

Tax collector to serve until the first Monday of January 1930, Ross McElwain.

Boro auditor to serve until the first Monday of January, 1930, Danes Mozes. To serve until the first Monday of January, 1932, Mike Raykovics. To serve until the first Monday of January 1934, Charles O. Hazen.

Assessor, Lee Wallis. High constable, William E. Knallay.

Nor were there all of the candidates. Others had filed and withdrawn some of them coming over from the Independent party to the

Expert Heard In Libel Case

Handwriting Of Marziano Is Compared With Contents Of Anonymous Letter

Most of the Friday afternoon session before Judge Chambers in Lawrence county court in the case of the commonwealth against Tarquin Marziano, charged with criminal libel and writing anonymous letters was occupied with the testimony of E. H. Fearon, Pittsburgh handwriting expert.

Mr. Fearon was called by the prosecution as an expert witness to compare the genuine handwriting of Marziano with that contained in the anonymous letter sent the People's National Bank of Ellwood City and alleged to have been written by the defendant to impair the credit of Tito Principessa at the bank.

Mr. Fearon stated that he had made a study of the documents in the case and had compared the genuine writings of Marziano with those in the disputed letter, pointing out a great many similarities.

He testified that he had compared the disputed letter with Marziano's handwriting contained in the minute book of the American-Italian Civic League and also in several letters sent out by Marziano to members of the organization.

He stated that the ovals in the letters "a-o-r-a" were made in a peculiar manner after a style of writing which is not taught in the United States schools. Many traces of the similarities were found in both the disputed and genuine writings of Marziano.

He exhibited enlarged photographs of both the disputed and genuine writings in which these similarities were brought out in certain words used in both writings.

Considerable objection was raised by Attorney Braham for the defense to various points of the testimony, some of which was sustained by the court. In one instance a photographic reproduction of one set of words was ordered withdrawn and the testimony pertaining thereto stricken from the records because the prosecution had not identified certain of the characters as have been contained in any of the genuine writings offered as exhibits in the case.

The case was still on trial when the Thursday afternoon session of court was adjourned.

Make Effort To Get Improved Road In Township

Franklin, And North Sewickley Township Citizens Are Pushing Project

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., March 22.—Citizens of Franklin and North Sewickley townships are making an effort to have the road improved, which leads from the present Beaver Falls road to the bridge which spans the Connoquessing Creek near the Country Club.

The road is a state highway and is of slippery clay and almost impassable at the present time. Several near fatal accidents have occurred at the top of the Bennett hill recently, there being no sign to warn motorists of the dangerous curve over the crest of the hill.

The improvement of this road was promised several years ago and there is likelihood of its fulfillment soon.

Census Figures Will Be Boosted

Annexation Of Ewing Park Will Make Fine Showing For Ellwood

ELLWOOD CITY, March 22.—Action of the Ellwood City borough council at a special meeting in finally approving the long talked of project of annexation of Ewing Park, means that Ellwood will be given quite a boost in the next U. S. census, which will be taken next year.

The annexation brings quite a populous community into the city and adds a fine residential section to the legal boundaries of the city, although technically it has been a flourishing part of Ellwood for some years.

Numerous problems as to the school district, etc. are still to be finally adjusted before the Ewing Park section is nominally a part of the every day functions of the city.

The territory annexed includes all of Ewing Park school district and affects about 30 families along the Ellwood-New Castle road, north of Ewing Park proper.

Annexation is believed to be a step for the benefit of both Ellwood City and the Ewing Park district.

Character Witnesses Called This Morning In Ellwood Case

In the case of the commonwealth against Tarquin Marziano, which has been on trial before Judge Chambers in county court since yesterday morning, the defense called a number of witnesses this morning to show that previous to this suit Marziano has always borne a good reputation. The suit was brought by Tito Principessa, who claims that Marziano wrote an alleged libelous letter with the intention of injuring his standing at an Ellwood City bank.

From the bulletin the latter can learn the location of the field, the facilities it offers in the way of hangars, repair work and refueling and also hazards to flying in the nearby area as steeples and high tension wires.

Cost Of Dry Raids Too High According To District Attorney

Aldermen And Justices In Mercer County Asked To Be Watchful

SHARON, Pa., March 22.—Striking at the apparent high costs in criminal actions in Mercer county, subject of constant criticism in the past District Attorney Leo McKay in a communication to all aldermen and justices of the peace in the county has directed that all accounts be kept carefully and charges held to reasonable amounts.

Actual costs, no more and no less should be taxed in all cases, the communication directs. Where a constable uses his own automobile in liquor raids he should tax a reasonable sum for its use under "use of car" or "transporting evidence." The sum should range from $2 to $5 depending on use of the car.

In cases where an officer spends time or money investigating a liquor case prior to the date of a raid, special investigation slips furnished aldermen should be filled out and turned over to the district attorney. The district attorney's office will tax special investigation costs hereafter and must be able to explain to all persons why they are taxed, the communication sets forth. Special investigation fees should be affixed to transcripts.

Helper's fees on liquor raids should remain at $5 according to the prosecutor. For all special work at the request of the district attorney or county detective instruction are given to submit a bill to the prosecutor before the first of every month.

The above is directed at the law forces of the county owing to the constant criticism of the district attorney on account of high costs according to Prosecutor McKay.

Other officers elected were: Cora Williams, Trafford, vice president; Catherine McClure, Blairsville, secretary; and Katherine Elder, New Castle, treasurer.

Miss Boobyer, the new president, will select her cabinet within a week and will announce the selection at the next meeting of the organization.

Roaming Round With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

Back in the days when leg-o-mutton sleeves were considered the thing, oh quite the thing, and the street cars were just beginning to come in, beards were a mark of distinction. Dandies, dandies or Van Dykes, whichever your fancy ordered, with always a flowing mustache parked just north of the beard.

Those were the days when men hid their faces behind a canopy of blades, and took their likker straight. With the dawn of automobiles and electric lights the beards began to drop out of the picture. Both inventions were responsible. The automobile because too many of the boys got their beards caught in the hind wheel when the wind carried the mattress vines out over the side of the car, and the electric light because it showed up the soup stains.

Apparently beards are enjoying a renaissance over in the office of the Shenango Pottery. For some reason some of the boys are developing a full fledged set of privet hedge on their chins and what whiskers have to do with hotel china is another one of those things.

It may be that the plant is beginning to make mustache cups and the lads in question are being used as models.

Did considerable roaming over the southern end of the county Thursday afternoon. Down around the B & O shops, through to West Pittsburg and Wampum, and then over through Ellwood City to the baby of the boro, Ellport.

A nice respectable looking boro, laid out along the concrete road running through Burnstown and Wurttemberg, with the concrete road the main street of the boro. And right away the folks got busy and have a nice little election fight to sort of start the boro off on its corporate career.

Ellwood seems to be looking better every time I get down there. Everybody I wanted to see had moved, but the thing is they had moved to better quarters. It's a bigger place than it was a week ago. Ewing Park, the home of nice homes, is now a part of Ellwood City and becomes the fifth ward of the city. A few more annexations and Ellwood City will be talking of a metropolitan plan for the south end of the county.

Dinner was spent with the Shenango Works bowlers who were entertaining the General Office team of the Pittsburgh offices. I might have known there was dirty work a brewing. No visitors can be as nice as that Pittsburgh outfit was without having some Shenangan in mind.

The idea was that Shenango Works was to win. Why not? It was their party. You hardly expect a guest to take a cut at your chin after filling him up with good food, but in a bowling sense Pittsburgh did this.

An another thing. What this country needs is a codification of dinner laws, with the spoons and forks labeled so a diner would know which tool to use. As usual I was short a fork and over a spoon when we got into the home stretch.

Wouldn't you suppose one would use a fork to macerate a peach salad?

Legislators Up In Clouds Over Gas Tax Bills

State Legislators Without Definite Knowledge Just What To Expect
Monday

LENGTH OF TAX CAUSES PUZZLE

Fight To Be Made To Have New Gas Tax Measure
In Force For Two Years

By ROBERT F. GORMAN
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

HARRISBURG, March 22.—Despite persistent reports that the proposed four-cent gasoline tax, if passed by the present session of the legislature, would be continued for only one year, new reports developed today which would indicate that the tax would be continued for the biennium and that within the next week efforts would be made to acquaint members with actual proposals for the next two years, together with figures showing the revenue necessary to carry out the program.

Thus far many members of the legislature have found little in data submitted on which to base an opinion. No definite word has come from any source that a four-cent tax is to be asked. Some information has reached members regarding proposals for highway work during the coming biennium but the figures at hand have been based on the present tax rate and cannot be intelligently set alongside of the proposals for the biennium.

More Information.
Legislators are to be given more information and then the four-cent tax proposition will be brought up for discussion on the floor of the house and senate.

There will be no new tax bill offered. Next Wednesday has been fixed as the last day for introduction of bills in the house and under Pennsylvania practices, revenue raising measures must originate in the house. A new bill cannot be prepared in that time so the fact remains that either the Talbot bill or the Sterling bill, both of which have passed two readings and are now in the hands of the ways and means committee, will be amended.

Seek Four-Cent Increase.
The bills each propose a permanent tax of three cents and one of them will be amended so that an emergency tax will be included, thus making the total four cents for the biennium.

The Talbot bill provides for the collection of the tax from the distributors. The Sterling bill provides collection from the retailers. Both bills allow certain percentages for the collectors to reimburse them for the work involved and in payment of the bonds which they must provide. Sentiment in the legislature is largely back of the Talbot bill and it is generally conceded that the Talbot bill will be the one to which the emergency tax amendment will be attached.

State Treasurer Lewis has been supporting the Talbot bill and at the same time has been opposing the extra cent tax. Representative Talbot, Delaware, sponsor of the bill, is likewise opposed to the cent increase but is exerting every effort to force passage of his measure and he has the support of many of the big distributors and practically all of the retailers.

Proponents of the tax increase point out that the additional cent during the next two years will put the road building program away ahead of where it would be if the tax remains at three cents during the period. They contend, also, that the impression has gone out that the increase would work a hardship on the pleasure driver and small consumer. On the other hand, they say, the big consumer will pay the bill.

$8.33 Increase.
One supporter of the proposal stated that a fair average for a pleasure car is 10,000 miles annually and that a fair average mileage per gallon of gasoline is about 12 miles. On this basis the figures developed that the increased cost of operating a car for the year would only amount to approximately $8.33. Business cars, of course, it was conceded, would find a proportionate increase in operating cost, based on the consumption.

The highway building program measures will come up in the house Monday night on special order of business and after that developments on the tax increase proposals may be expected at any time.

Sharon Reserves To Affiliate With Valley Association

Decide Not Best To Form Separate Chapter In Up-State City

Three members of the local Reserve Officers' Association motored to Sharon Thursday night to confer with local reserve men as to the possibility of forming a new chapter there. Those making the trip were Capt. W. Fulton Jackson, Capt. M. L. Craig and Lieut. P. J. Dempsey.

Following a lengthy conference, the Sharon men decided it would not be best to form a separate chapter among the Sharon men, but expressed their belief that direct affiliation with the Shenango chapter would be better. At the same time a separate Sharon organization could also be formed. This was decided upon and temporary officers were selected to organize the round up of Sharon officers.

The matter transacted last night will be brought up for confirmation at the meeting of the valley association next Thursday night. Following its approval definite arrangements for the organization will be effected. The vice president of the local chapter will direct the work of the Sharon department following its organization.

Among those who were present at last night's conference was Maj. Louis E. Burnsides, Sharon, who is president of the Shenango chapter.

ERIE, March 22.—General breaking up of ice on all of the Great Lakes is indicated in the weekly report of the United States weather bureau at Detroit. Norman B. The report indicates that open water is appearing on all of the lakes and in most of the bays and that the St. Clair lake is open and ice running in the Detroit river. The extreme west end of Lake Erie is free of ice, but none eastward to and beyond Cleveland and from Ashtabula eastward to Dunkirk the fields are moving in and out with the winds; at Buffalo the fields extend beyond vision but the ice is softening and liable to break up soon.

The Bessemer board of education has approved the plans for the new high school to be constructed there, as submitted by the W. G. Eckles Company of this city. The new Bessemer building is to contain all of the special high school departments, including home economics rooms, shop, work, science laboratory, music and commercial rooms and a new library. Plans for the new Harlansburg high school which the firm submitted to the school board of Scott township some time ago, have been approved. It is expected that work on both school projects will get under way sometime in April.

Monongahela City Busy With Fires

Two Fires In Monongahela City At Same Time Keep Firemen On Jump

(International News Service)
MONONGAHELA CITY, Pa., March 22.—Two fires at opposite ends of the city did damage early today which was tentatively estimated at $14,000. Fire swept an old skating rink now used as a storage room for used cars; County commissioners went to North Beaver township this afternoon for the purpose of viewing a site for a proposed bridge over Hickory creek on the road running south from Mt. Jackson toward Moravia. The old bridge is believed to be unsafe for heavy traffic. In connection with the location of the bridge, a change will be made to eliminate a curve.

When the new flapper voting list becomes operative in Northampton, England, May 1, men will be in the minority by about 5,000, according to estimates based on the present registration. The new list has 10 additional women to every additional man. There were 48,000 voters on the old list. This number is increased by 12,000 by the new registration. Of that, 11,100 are women, mostly between the ages of 21 and 30.

destroying 25 used cars and one new automobile. The loss was put at $12,000. At the same time the Black Diamond tipple of the Pittsburgh Coal company mine, Black Diamond was damaged by fire with a loss estimated at $2,000. The Monongahela fire fighting forces divided to battle both blazes while the New Eagle company also responded for the skating rink blaze.

Gives Pension To President Hainisch

VIENNA, March 22.—By special act of Parliament the Austrian government was authorized to grant Professor Michael Hainisch, the first president of the republic, a monthly pension amounting to the sum of 1,000 Austrian Schillings, i. e., $150. The Austrian presidency is financially a very modest proposition. The salary of the president while in office amounts to about $600 a month, which is but one result of the monthly salary of his American colleague.

Germany Meets Stiff Fight By English Ships

By J. C. OESTREICHER
International News Service Staff
Correspondent
LONDON, March 22.—Attempts by Germany to wrest the speed record for trans-Atlantic crossings from the Cunard liner Mauretania are destined to meet with stiff opposition from British shipping.

Determined not to permit the new German liners Europa and Bremen to "walk away" with the blue ribbon of the Atlantic, the Mauretania has been especially refitted in secret, to enable her to compete with the great new engines installed in the two German vessels.

Opposition Expected
Designers of the Europa and Bremen men, it is pointed out here, expected opposition from new Cunard and White Star liners now under construction, and the Mauretania, which has held the speed record since 1907, has been left out of the reckoning, because her maximum speed has been known to be 25½ knots, while the German vessels will be capable of 27.

Cunard engineers, however, have prepared a surprise. With her new fittings, she will be capable of an astonishing increase in her speed from 25½ to 28 knots, and possibly beyond this it is said. The ship's own engineers believe that, with favorable sea conditions, they can maintain a steady speed of an even 30 knots.

Engines Rebuilt
These increases in speed have been made possible by a partial reconstruction of the vessel's engines. During the Mauretania's recent two months' overhaul at Southampton, the condenser plant was reconstructed and rotary feed pumps were installed in place of reciprocating feed pumps. These changes were to effect a quicker condensation of steam and a swifter feeding of water to the boilers.

They will enable the ship to retain for days a head of steam which she has hitherto possessed only for short bursts of a few hours.

Students Work Way Through University

(International News Service)
BOULDER, Colo., March 22.—Students at Colorado University make their way the best they can, as figures released by the dean of women and dean of men disclose that 650 of the 3,061 students are gainfully employed in trades varying from hashing and dishwashing to being private secretaries and supplying at the local telephone exchange.

Twenty-four per cent of the total number of women either earn a part or all of their college expenses, while 80 per cent of the 2,039 men included on the enrollment list labor to earn their living.

50th Anniversary Of Incandescent Light

(International News Service)
ATLANTIC CITY, March 22.—The Golden Jubilee of Light—marking the 50th anniversary of the invention of the incandescent light bulb by Thomas Edison—will be inaugurated here May 31 and will last until October 21, the anniversary date.

"Hex" Doctor Is To Be Arrested In Girl's Death

Charles T. Belles, Lehigh County "Pow-Wow" Doctor Faces Murder Charge

ALLENTOWN, Pa., March 22.—Armed with the command of District Attorney Ethan Allen Gornham: "Gentlemen, you may arrest Belles whenever you are ready. I shall move to have him indicted for the murder of the girl," state troopers today kept close watch on the movements of Charles T. Belles, Lehigh county pow-wow doctor.

Meanwhile police, city detectives and attaches of the district attorney's office continued their efforts to uncover more evidence linking Belles with the death of pretty Verna Octavia Delp found poisoned near here last Saturday. Police claim they have a strong case from the circumstantial evidence amassed but hope to add more to batter down the wall of fear aroused among witnesses questioned when the name of the pow-wow doctor was mentioned. Gornham claims the witnesses are afraid of being "hexed" if they give incriminating testimony regarding a hex doctor.

McLarnin-Miller Ready For Fight In New York City

McLarnin Favored To Win Over Ray Miller In Battle At Garden Tonight

MILLER WON IN PREVIOUS FIGHT

By DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service
NEW YORK, March 22.—Jimmy McLarnin and Ray Miller, punch-drunkers both, will shoot it out again tonight in the good old reliable way so satisfactory to the days when tombstone was tombstone and the west a place where a man could enjoy the right to be unfettered, unfettered and unfettered. The scene of the latest will be Madison Square Garden where the principals promise to spend the greater part of the evening dropping hand grenades in each other's beards and the chances seem good that they will run out of beads some time before they run out of grenades.

They are one-punch men, this pair, a great rarity in this age of sedate, formal pugilism; the type is so rare, in fact, that New York has to go all the way back to Dempsey and Firpo to know six years ago to find a counterpart of the attraction.

McLarnin favored.

With this kind, they set a limit on the number of rounds just as an emergency measure in case both gentlemen become confused and forget their obligations or something. The last time out McLarnin was shot down in disorder, the bout being stopped because of the profuse bleeding of a cut under one eye. It was the only knockout of James' career, but the sight had leveled Terris, Kaplan, Fields, McGraw and Glick and he was drawing a bead on Miller's chin again and this time New York is convinced that the young man won't go wrong.

It has made him a favorite at odds of 2 to 1, for no reason at all except that Miller money has turned up very absent. Another answer to the price on McLarnin is that New York is sold on his punch and just can't see him missing twice in the same place, the third is centered around the fact that he can come in at 140 pounds, whereas he claimed he gave himself the worst of it at 138 pounds the last time.

Seats Selling Fast.

In any event, the odds are too long. McLarnin may have as much as a million-pound pull in the weights (the time but it won't do to forget that the impost against Miller was seven or eight pounds in the Detroit engagement.

New York, however, isn't asking questions. It is buying tickets or trying to. No fight here since the Delaney-Maloney event of unhappy memory has enchanted the mugs as much as this one and they are running around today offering anything in reason, or out of it, for ringside seats. This means another sell out for McLarnin, his third this season, and probably another ticket scandal. It also means that from $80,000 to $85,000 will be on the books for the payoff, a Garden record for $10 fights.

SENATORS PLAN BASE STEALING TO WIN PENNANT

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, March 22.—The Washington Senators are going to try to steal the American League pennant this season.

Clyde Milan, one of the fleetest players in the majors when he was in his prime, is tutoring the squad at Tampa in the long-forgotten art of base stealing. If he can impart his technique to the National speedsters, the fans at Washington will be treated to frequent exhibitions of this spectacular department of the national pastime, a science that has languished since the city of home run hitting began.

Milan has promising material, with which to work. Buddy Myer, the infielder who was called to Boston and then recalled in exchange for half of the Washington team, is the best puffer on the squad. He stole thirty bases for the Red Sox last year, leading the league in that department.

Joe Judge, Ossie Bluege and Goose Goslin also were well among the leaders. Bluege negotiated eighteen stolen bases last year, and Judge and Goslin sixteen apiece.

Sam West and Red Barres, youthful outfielders, have been receiving special attention from Coach Milan. Both are very fast but have not yet mastered the little tricks of the base-stealing art which mean the difference between a pilfered sack and a put-out.

Hardly a man on the team is a slouch on the base paths. Last season the Senators, with a total of 110 stolen bases, were the third fastest team in the league.

New Wilmington Champs To Get School Letters

Nine Members Of Team To Receive Awards For Past Season

NEW WILMINGTON, March 22.—Announcement was made today by Coach C. H. Olsen of the lettermen on the championship New Wilmington high school basketball team. Nine of the high school players will be awarded the varsity letters at a special assembly in the near future.

The list of stars who won the athletic honor are: Captain Wilbur Patterson, Howard Eagleson, Thomas Hutchinson, Gerald Newton, Theodore McConnell, Willis McGill, Donald Davis, Robert Neal and Darwin Hartwell. Of this group Eagleson, Hutchinson, Newton, Davis and McGill have played their last game of basketball for New Wilmington high school.

A captain for the next year's team will be elected about the same time as the letters are awarded to the players.

New Wilmington high school will support two spring sports this year according to a report given by Coach C. H. Olsen. Baseball which has long been abandoned by the district high schools will be played again and an attempt will be made to organize a county league with Union, Bessemer and New Wilmington as the main entries.

Arrangements are also being made for several dual track meets in which the college town secondary school athletes will participate. Meets with Grove City and other large high schools are in the process of being booked.

The first practice session of the candidates for the varsity baseball team will be held this coming Monday evening. Coach C. H. Olsen will handle both the baseball and track teams and will probably alternate practice periods.

New Floor Leader

"GLENN O'DONOVAN"

"Babe" has been assisting as umpire in the intra-mural basketball games at Westminster during the last week.

Wolgast Has Won Over Champion Izzy Schwartz

Champions Retain Titles By Sidestepping Titular Weight

GRANDE HAS CLASS, PUNCH AND HEART

By ED. FRITZ

Although Midget Wolgast is ranked fourth best flyweight in the world the fact remains that he holds a decision over Izzy Schwartz while Frisco Grande, Filipino menace to Wolgast, has defeated most of the topnotchers in the game which gives opportunity for an explanation as to why a champion can be defeated and still retain his title.

Most of the champions now coveting about the Fistic rialto battle as often as possible but as rarely as possible at the championship weight limit so that in case they are defeated their title does not pass on. This has been the case in many dual affairs as is vividly illustrated when Champion Izzy Schwartz met Emile Pladner, the sensational French pugilist recently at Paris. They boxed at a weight over the limit. Schwartz lost the decision but retains his title.

Frankie Genaro, recognized formerly by the National Boxing association as the 112 pound champion, engaged to France and Pladner knocked out. The National Boxing association promptly bestowed the title on the Frenchman.

Bellanger, the Canadian champion at present, lost twice to Frisco Grande, whose cleverness and punch combined took one ten round decision. In their second fight the Canadian phenom fouled Frisco.

Included among Wolgast's victims are such well known performers as Willie Davies, Phil Tobias, Marty Gold, Matty White, Ernie Peters, Bal Griffin, Sammy Tucker, Steve Cole, Pussey Walker, Young Chapelle and Danny Flores.

Fans have seen Ernie Peters in action here as Wolgast defeated Peters, an Indian, they are willing to recognize that Midget is the "better" pugilist. They only chafe to see Frisco was when he boxed Davies.

The weight at which Grande and Davies were scheduled to box was 114 pounds. Frisco developed a cold a day preceding the bout and loafed in training. As a result he did not feel good on that Sunday, went through the workout and on Monday was overweight.

He had a forfeit of $100 posted with the state commission to weigh not more than 114 pounds at three o'clock and at one o'clock travelled to a local gymnasium, worked half an hour and removed the surplus weight and by drying out two hours weighed 113 1/2.

Davies was at the peak and tipped the beams at 113 1/2, the same as Grande. No one can have a word of criticism over the bout. Davies was good, exceptionally good that night and Frisco fought the little Welshman as though inspired.

Their list fists hammered each other fast and often. They stepped around like lightning and Frisco surprised fans by flooring Willie. The little Welshman had come back like a tiger in the last portion of the fight and won the decision.

And so Frisco comes back here again, this time, he says, in the "pink", ready to crowd Wolgast and if possible knock the crown from his head. He hopes to land his left hook to the chin while Midget hopes to lose Grande with his lightning speed and boxing.

According to what we have been told and seen of Wolgast is a "speed dynamo" and a "perpetual fireman" and works as fast as lightning. He is spectacular and his footwork is amazing. This sounds rather as exploitation but every word of the statement is true.

Fans here should feel that Bill Jolly is doing something in bringing Wolgast back. Bill isn't a piker when it comes to showing the color of his "dough" and wants the fans to have the best that can be secured according to the receipts in the box office.

Sometimes one or two bouts are a little off color but if fans will travel

Detroit Tigers Look Like Improved Team

Manager Bucky Harris Expects To Lead Tigers Into First Division

Youthful Players On Roster This Year; Three Good Southpaws On Hand

LOS ANGELES, March 22.—Manager Bucky Harris, serving his first season as boss of the Detroit Tigers, following several weeks of intensive training here, declares he is quite satisfied with the team he will go to bat with. The new leader is highly enthusiastic over his prospects.

The players definitely pick themselves to win the pennant. Calm critics, however, who have watched the development of the team, are hopeful that the Tigers will get into the first division. Even this would be a distinct triumph for the fiery manager, for the Tigers finished sixth last season.

In at least two particulars the Tigers will be stronger. New and youthful recruits make it certain that the outfit will be fast. This will be something new and will furnish a big contrast to the customary heavy-footed team that has plodded slowly along for Detroit.

Three Good Southpaws Another helpful circumstance is that the Tigers will have three good southpaw pitchers, if early indications are verified. Whitehill, potentially a great southpaw, but who had no different season last year, appears to have returned to the form that made him famous two years ago. Yde, the veteran National Leaguer, is showing fine form and appears to be a fixture, while Frank Barnes, a youngster obtained from Houston, has impressed Manager Bucky to such an extent that he will be retained and it is expected he will be used in turn whenever a southpaw is needed.

Early indications are that the hitting power will be considerably improved. The additional speed of the new men in getting to first should add to the team's clubbing average and also increase its scoring ability.

Outfield Is Fast In Stone, Rice and Johnson the outfit will have out of the fastest and best throwing outfielders in the racket. Collectively they should hit better than 300. Heilmann at first and Schube at short are experiments. Especially is Schube, the sensational Texas League product, impressive at short. Gehring and McManus, who will look after the second and third basing respectively, are recognized as capable in their positions. In all the infield will not only be faster, but it will hit harder than any infield the Tigers have had in years.

Manager Harris has not yet decided definitely upon his pitching staff, but, in addition to the three left-handers already named he will carry seven right-handers picked from an array of about a dozen promising candidates.

Several of them, including the ace of the pack, Owen Carroll, Sam Gibson and George Smith, will be carried over from last season. Prudhomme, obtained from Toronto, will also be in the group.

Larry Woodall, veteran catcher, will be assisted by Mervyn Shea and Ed Phillips.

Various changes made or contemplated will materially reduce the average age of the team, while they will quite as materially increase the speed and, it is hoped by Bucky Harris, add to the general success.

Baseball Puzzlers

By CHARLEY BARRETT
Big League Scout Writing for Central Press and New Castle News

There are a lot of laughs in baseball, particularly in minor league baseball. The scout is often sentenced to weeks at a time in making the tours of the sticks and the amusing situations that come up help to compensate for the inconvenience of this type of traveling.

When the Cardinals were bringing out Jim Bottomley they sent him to Mitchell in the Dakota League. As a matter of fact, he played 97 games with Mitchell and I kept an eye on him during the 1928 season.

It is windy up in that country, even on the nicest days. The outfielders learn to gauge the breeze as part of the game, but sometimes they get crossed up and the batters get the benefit of unearned extra base hits.

I was there one day, keeping an eye on the awkward Bottomley, who already was showing signs of promise. The wind was blowing at a lively rate, but the pitching was unusually good for that league and the score was tied.

In about the eighth inning the Mitchell club got a man on third base with one out. The next batter raised a short fly to left, too short for the runner to score if the throw was anywhere near the plate. But the coach decided to take a chance and send him in.

As the ball descended it was caught by a gust of wind and instead of landing in the fielder's glove came down squarely on the top of his skull. Down went the outfielder like he had been hit with an axe and up went the ball.

Of course the base runner cut for home, but the laughable part of the play came when the stricken outfielder, stretched on his back, caught the ball on its descent before it hit the ground. He followed with a throw to third and the players immediately demanded that the runner be declared out for leaving the bag before the ball was caught.

The umpire agreed and permitted the double play. This was about as laughable a situation and as queer a play as might turn up.

Detroit Is Optimistic

By QUIN HALL
Having speared a new pilot in the person of Bucky Harris, Detroit and the Speed Town fans are glowingly optimistic over the coming season's prospects. Naturally that's a Detroit viewpoint, but the fans scattered over the country are pretty well agreed that the Tigers will be the dark horse in the American league if there is a sombre nag in the 1929 pennant race.

Reports from Phoenix, Ariz., where the Tigers train, are almost as glowing as the optimism expressed by the home fans. Unfortunately, most press reports must be discounted or else there would be eight winning clubs in each league.

However, the fans are pretty well agreed that, in grabbing Harris as pilot, the management did rather a masterful thing. Bucky still has much managerial ability and, if he can do as good a job at Detroit as he did at Washington, the Tigers are almost certain to make a better showing than they have for many years. Harris may also take a turn at playing second base. His presence on the field is apt to put a lot of extra pep into the Detroit infield.

Before the training grind started, Bucky said that he would do a little experimenting in shifting his players about and, as a consequence, some of the benches may not be permanently filled until just before the regular season starts. Much may also depend on some of the new material which Harris recommended, and the management bought or secured by trades.

George Uhle is one of the aces on which Harris is doing some heavy gambling. Once the best right-handed pitcher in the American league, Uhle is hoping to stage a comeback with Detroit. If he succeeds, Bucky will get the credit for being a wise boy, as he was largely responsible for the trade which sent Shortstop Taverne and Pitcher Holloway to the Cleveland Indians in exchange for the twirler.

Then, through the instigation of Harris, the Detroit club paid $75,000 to San Francisco for Outfielder Roy Johnson and something like $15,000 to Houston for Shortstop Heilmann. Johnson is almost sure of a spot in the outfield with Rice and Harry Heilmann. The former Seal out considerable dimes on the Pacific coast and is expected to be one of the best new players in the big leagues this year.

For a time Bucky figured on switching Heilmann from the outfield to cover first base, in order to bolster up the hitting strength of his infield, but with the acquisition of Alexander it is doubtful that this will be done. Heilmann is a tower of strength in the Detroit offensive attack, and there is always a chance that a shift to the infield might take away some of his hitting power.

Harris entered the training grind fairly confident of putting the Tigers in the midst of the fighting, right from the drop of the hat. He's a capable pilot and, with his new material, should have a well balanced club. The fans hope the Tigers as the dark horse in the coming American league race.

Manager Harris also recommended the payment of $100,000 to the Toronto International league club for First Baseman Dale Alexander and Pitcher Johnny Prudhomme. These fellows did good work for the Canadian club and are likely to strengthen the Tigers.

TRAINING CAMP 'BUNTS'

Baseball Teams In 'Big Show' Prepare For Season

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—It required ten innings for the Pirates to down the Missions in the exhibition game here. Walter Tauscher clouted a homer in that frame to break the deadlock and a moment later Comorosky doubled scoring Adams. It was Comorosky's clout which won the game, for the Missions came back with one tally in their half of the tenth, the game ending 5 to 4. The Pirates and Missions will meet this afternoon and tomorrow.

AVON PARK, Fla., March 22.—The Philadelphia Nationals were snatching today under a terrible slaking by the St. Louis Cardinals who came out of their batting slump yesterday and scored 14 runs. The Phils garnered seven tallies. Hefey hit a freak homer in the fourth with the bases loaded. His blow into deep left caused O'Doul to crash into the bat-king cage in chasing the ball. O'Doul was not injured.

ORLANDO, Fla., March 22.—The Athletics spotted the Cincinnati Reds to a one-run lead in the eighth by virtue of a couple of errors but nothing daunted rapped the Red moundsmen for six runs in the ninth, winning 10 to 5. Foxx crashed a home run in the sixth. Simmons was on the base at the time.

Phantoms Win From Shamrocks
The Phantoms of the Y. W. C. A. defeated the Shamrocks, 48 to 19, in a game played on the Y. W. C. A. floor. Leathers, Perry and Plush were the high scorers for the Phantoms. The work of Allen and Haines featured for the losers.

The summary:
Phantoms 48 Shamrocks 19
Leathers 8, Perry 7, Plush 9, Allen 6, Haines 3, Foulis 3, Phantoms 0 out of 3; Shamrocks, 1 out of 3. Referee: Jeannette Hughes.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., March 22.—Henry Firpo defeated Rudy Cedar in 10 rounds at the Rayer-Wood auditorium last night. After the second round the bout was one-sided. Cedar tossed a scare into the Firpo count of seven in the first round. The bel, sounded at the count of seven and when Firpo came out in the second he floored Cedar for a count of two. After that Firpo slashed, nooked, jabbed, cut Cedar's face and closed both his eyes. Joey Goodman defeated Steve O'Malley in another 10 round bout. Goodman found O'Malley's style hard. The margin was not large. The margin was not large.

Is Your Wife Driving the Car on Risky Old Tires?

This is the most dangerous season of the year to risk tire trouble. Now is when new Goodyears should be put on. We make it easy to do this.

Is your wife driving on old thin tires that are easily punctured, subject to blowouts and have little or no non-skid traction left on them?

Even if smash-ups are avoided, any moment she may find herself miles from home with a "flat" on a cold, wet day or evening—the necessity of walking to a phone—delay.

You will agree that just before Spring, when driving conditions are the worst, is the most sensible time to protect a car and its occupants with new Goodyears. New, deep-cut, sure-footed treads for safe stops and traction on bad roads. New tires that mean peace of mind, freedom from trouble or delays, wherever you drive.

Also, you can get more for your old unsafe tires now than a little later after you've "shot them to pieces."

Drop in—talk it over—let's see what kind of a deal we can make on the new 1929 Goodyears—finest tires in history at lowest prices in 30 years and lifetime guaranteed! See us before any troubles happen to make you everlastingly sorry for letting the matter slide.
